

The Utensils Chapter Notes
Learn to Live
Darius Rucker

14. Ernest Hemingway, "Notes on the Next War: A Serious Topical Letter," 1935
15. Andy Xie, "Empty Heads," South China Morning Post, November 22, 2008, p.A17
15. Bloomberg, "US financial losses may hit US$3.6tr," South China Morning Post, January 21, 2009, p.B6
15. Ji Zhe, "Sound Sino-US ties crucial to both nations," China Daily, December 5, 2008, p.18
15. Geoff Dyer and Patti Waldmeir, "China Life in plans for overseas deals," Financial Times, November 18, 2008, p.20
15. Benjamin Scent, "Buffet vs Li on investment outlook," August 27, 2008, p.11
15. Bloomberg, "US housing starts in July may have fallen to lowest in 17 years," South China Morning Post, August 18, 2008, p.B7
16. Toh Han Shih, "Drywall suits latest stink in Sino-US trade," South China Morning Post, September 24, 2009, p. B1
16. Dani Rodrik, "Who killed Wall Street? We may never know," China Daily, October 17, 2008, p.9
16. Paul Wiseman, "Lehman meltdown burns Asian investors," USA Today, November 11, 2008, p. 9B
16. Tom Holland, "Party coming to an end for pair of economic drunkards," South China Morning Post, September 10, 2008, p.B12
16. Bloomberg, "Bernanke 'a pilot who didn't see hurricane'," South China Morning Post, September 29, 2009, p. B6
18. Fanny W.Y. Fung, "Astronauts send thousands of excited admirers into orbit," South China Morning Post, December 7, 2008, p.3
18. Jeffrey Kluger, "Back to The Moon," Time Magazine, November 24, 2008, p.44
18. Barbara Demick, "China's space program takes a giant step forward," Los Angeles Times, September 28, 2008, p.A4
18. David Barboza, "China Sends Three Into Space in the Nation's Third Manned Mission in Five Years," The New York Times, September 26, 2008 p.A15
18. Choi Chi-yuk, "China's probe crashes into moon □ as planned," South China Morning Post, March 2, 2009, p. 1
18. Photo Reuters, "Tall Order," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A4
18. Staff Reporter, "China's first Mars probe set for blastoff as research phase ends," South China Morning Post,

May 29, 2009, p.A7

19. David Barboza, "Shanghai Buys Itself A Makeover Before a Fair," The New York Times International, May 31, 2009, p.8

19. Lilian Zhang, "Expo may turn profit in future," South China Morning Post, July 28, 2009, p.A5

19. Will Clem and Dan Kadison, "Clinton hits the phones for Expo's US pavilion," Sunday Morning Post, June 7, 2009, p. 2

19. Will Clem and Lillan Zhang, "Lawyer heads US team for expo battle," South China Morning Post, July 3, 2009, p.A4

19. Lillan Zhang and Anna Zhang, "US confirms it will attend Shanghai World Expo," South China Morning Post, July 11, 2009, p.A7

20. Reuters, "Hillary Clinton falls, breaks elbow," China Daily, June 19, 2009, p.12

22. Marisol Bello, "States close rest areas in bid to save shortfalls," USA Today, July 20, 2009, p.1

23. Reuters, "California forced to issue IOUs as it runs out of cash," South China Morning Post, July 4, 2009, p.A9

23. Ross Douthut, International Herald Tribune, September 22, 2009, p.6

23. AFP, "About 40 million people in America live in poverty," The Philippine Star, September 12, 2009, p.A-22

23. Marisol Bello, "1 in 6 hungry in America last year," USA Today, November 18, 2009, p.4A

23. Reuters, "US housing crisis gets worse each day," South China Morning Post, October 9, 2009, p. B10

23. Bloomberg, "Stiglitz warns markets 'irrationally exuberant,'" South China Morning Post, October 7, 2009, p.B9

23. Robert J. Samuelson, "America's Sinking Welfare State," Newsweek, June 29, 2009, p. 5

23. The New York Times, "Los Angeles awash with worry after rash of water-main breaks," South China Morning Post, September 30, 2009, p. A14

24. Reuters, "Los Angeles officials can't afford Lakers parade," China Daily, June 15, 2009, p. 11

24. AFP, "Downturn sounds death knell for costly burials in Los Angeles," South China Morning Post, July 25, 2009, p.A9

24. Staff, "Shanghai finding MJ's Neverland," The Standard, July 9, 2009, p.2

24. Jay Rayner, "Cause celebre," South China Morning Post, June 22, 2009, p.C1

25. AP, "Obama eats, and Americans eat with him," China Daily, June 10, 2009, p.11

25. Associated Press, "Goodbye to Gourmet magazine," South China Morning Post, October 7, 2009, p.A13
25. Daniel Gross, "Try the Beef and Broccoli," Newsweek, June 1, 2009, p. 20
26. Helene Cooper and Abby Goodnough, "Obama's beer summit," South China Morning Post, August 1, 2009, p.A12
26. Jim Stratton, "US doomsayers stock up on guns and food for the big crash," South China Morning Post, June 17, 2009, p.A14
26. James Carroll, "Apocalypse not now," International Herald Tribune, July 24, 2009, p.7
27. Vivienne Chow and Agencies, "Thanks a million, or two, thrilled investor tells Buffet on lunch date," South China Morning Post, June 26, 2009, p.A3
28. Staff and Bloomberg, "Buffet gets animated about teaching tots," South China Morning Post, July 25, 2009, p.B1
28. AFP, "Record number of Chinese firms in Fortune 500," South China Morning Post, July 10, 2009, p.B1
28. Bloomberg/Reuters, "I.C.B.C. world's top bank by market value, also claims the deposit title," International Herald Tribune, April 14, 2009, p.16
29. Special Report, "Does the Future Belong to China?" Newsweek, May 9, 2005, p. 26
29. George Chen, "China and U.S. working on deal to help troubled banks," International Herald Tribune, November 18, 2009, p. 19
30. David Elmer, "Foreign mates sliding off the marriage radar," Sunday Morning Post, April 5, 2009, p.10
31. Reuters, "China, Iraq agree on US$3b oil service accord," The Standard, August 28, 2008, p.14
31. Mike McGraw, "USAid's switch to Chinese condoms irks US company," South China Morning Post, March 25, 2009, p.A14
31. Associated Press, "How The New York Times missed the Watergate story," South China Morning Post, May 27, 2009, p.A10
31. Bloomberg, "Watergate Hotel auctioned to mortgage holder for US$25m," South China Morning Post, July 22, 2009, p.B4
32. World Affairs, "Who's to Blame: Washington or Wall Street?" Newsweek, March 30, 2009, p. 30
33. Marv Williams Walsh, "Fed lost opportunity on A.I.G., report says," International Herald Tribune, November 18, 2009, p.21
34. Nury Vittachi, "When bad news is seen as good, there's something really wrong," The Standard, June 18, 2009, p.15
32. Jacob Weisberg, "What Else Are We Wrong About?" Newsweek, April 20, 2009, p. 15

34. David Dodwell, "Down the rabbit hole go US economic brains," China Daily, June 4, 2009, p.9
36. AFP, "China rejects claims on source of outbreak," The Standard, April 30, 2009, p.8
36. AFP, "Beijing denounces reports China was source of swine flu," South China Morning Post, April 30, 2009, p.A4
36. AFP, "Furore over Wall Street firms receiving swine flu vaccines," South China Morning Post, November 7, 2009, p.A8
36. Minnie Chan, "Mainland's first swine flu death occurs in Tibet," South China Morning Post, October 7, 2009, p. A8
36. Reuters, "Two studies back China's claim that one vaccine dose is enough," South China Morning Post, September 12, 2009, p. A7
36. Peggy Chan, "Swine flu heads for summer peak," China Daily, June 19, 2009, p. H1
36. Ng Kang-chung and Ella Lee, "Twin victories in swine flu fight," South China Morning Post, May 9, 2009, p.1
36. Daniel Chan, "Confirmed swine flu cases rise to nine," China Daily, May 26, 2009, H1
36. Ella Lee, "WHO set aside own advice on flu screening," Sunday Morning Post, May 17, 2009, p.1
36. Associated Press, "WHO declares pandemic, the first since 1968," South China Morning Post, June 12, 2009, p.1
36. Ella Lee, "WHO's handling of flu in sharp contrast with Sars," Sunday Morning Post, May 17, 2009, p.1
36. Frank Ching, "Did only Hong Kong learn lessons from Sars?" South China Morning Post, May 26, 2009, p.A10
36. Ella Lee, "US lesson on hasty vaccination in 1976 not lost on experts," South China Morning Post, May 28, 2009, pA4
37. Reuters, "McCain, Obama outline stances towards China," South China Morning Post, September 16, 2008, p.A8
37. Greg Torode, "Sino the times," South China Morning Post," October 28, 2008, p.A16
37. Editorial, "US campaign rhetoric misses point on China," South China Morning Post, September 17, 2008, p.A14
38. Associated Press, "Cheney 'erred' in saying China is drilling for oil off Florida coast," South China Morning Post, June 14, 2008, p.A11
38. Wang Zhuoqiong, "Report on disease origin 'groundless'," China Daily, April 30 2009, p.1

39. David Brooks, "A budding romance soured by US debt," South China Morning Post, Sunday Morning Post, July 5, 2009, p.8
39. Chen Fang and Xu Shuffei, "Secrets of Umbrellas Made in China," The Epoch Times, April 16-22, 2009, p1
39. Sharon Begley, "Why Pundits Get Things Wrong," Newsweek, p.55
40. Reuters, "US' image better, but still worse than China's," South China Morning Post, April 3, 2008, p.A13
40. Brian Knowlton, "Global image of U.S. soars under Obama," International Herald Tribune, July 24, 2009, p.5
42. Ting Shi, "Beijing observers make convention debut," South China Morning Post, August 30, 2008, p.A8
43. AFP, "Probe on Facebook 'kill Obama' poll," South China Morning Post, September 30, 2009, p.A15
45. Martin Wong, and Danny Mok, "Man, 72, critical after fridge fall," South China Morning Post, February 20, 2009, p.C1
52. Robyn Lynam, "Not only helicopters," The Correspondent, July/August 2009, p. 8
52. Li Xiaokun, "Sino-Japanese scholars agree on massacre facts," China Daily, August 20, 2009, p. 2
53. Joseph Sternberg, "China Goes to Trade Court," The Wall Street Journal, September 24, 2009, p.17
53. Edward Gresser, "Inflated issue," South China Morning Post, September 16, 2009, p.A13
53. Kris Maher, "Paper is topic of next China trade fight," The Wall Street Journal, September 25-27, 2009, p.9
54. AFP, "US probes into steel pipe imports," South China Morning Post, October 9, 2009, p.B3
54. Andrew Jacobs, "China-U.S. trade fight keeps bubbling," International Herald Tribune, October 20, 2009, p.14
54. He Maochun, "Give reason a chance and indulge in fair practice," China Daily, October 20, 2009, p.9
54. Syetarn Hansakul, "Disputes not likely to lead to full-blown trade war," China Daily, October 20, 2009, p.9
55. Robert J. Samuelson, "The China Conundrum," Newsweek, September 28, 2009, p.20
55. Denise Tsang, "China biggest victim of trade protectionism, summit told," South China Morning Post, September 26, 2009, p.B3
55. Daniel Ikenson and Alec van Gelder, "The global factory," South China Morning Post, September 22, 2009, p.A11
58. He Huifeng, "Professor among dead in US shooting," South China Morning Post, April 8, 2009, p.A5
59. Jasmine Wang and Kandy Wong, "Beijing vetoes Coca-Cola bid for juice firm," South China Morning Post, March 19, 2009, p.1

59. Naomi Rovnick, Jasmine Wang and Woods Lee, "China raises chills as Coke bid bottled up," South China Morning Post, March 19, 2009, p.B1
66. William Pesek, "Bono fails to find US debt relief at dream China gig," The Standard, June 16, 2009, p.16
69. CAN, "Couple tie the knot again after six decades of separation," China Daily, June 2, 2009, p.H2
69. Zhu Linyong, "New era for Straits art gets to the point," China Daily, August 12, 2009, p. 18
69. Lawrence Chung, "Swim arranged from Fujian to Taiwanese islet," South China Morning Post, June 16, 2009, p.A7
70. Su Qiang and Xie Yu, "Mainland on spending spree in Taiwan," China Daily, June 2, 2009, p.1
71. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwan says too soon for cross-strait political talks," South China Morning Post, August 7, 2009, p.A7
71. Lawrence Chung, "Ma looks to early free-trade deal with mainland," South China Morning Post, July 30, 2009, p.A6
71. Michael Swaine, "Brinkmanship still mars Sino-US ties," South China Morning Post, March 16, 2009, p.A13
71. AFP, "Taiwan's economic pact with mainland splits the island," South China Morning Post, October 19, 2009, p.A7
71. Frank Ching, "On a tight leash," South China Morning Post, May 6, 2009, p.A13
71. Wu Jiao and Xie Yu, "Hu powers cross-Straits talks," China Daily, May 27, 2009, p.1
71. AP, "Politics can wait for KMT mission," The Standard, May 26, 2009, p.12
75. Reuters, "U.S. air base shutting down: closure expected in August," International Herald Tribune, June 16, 2009, p.3
80. William Mellor, "Want Want winning where Chiang lost," South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p.B10
80. Mark O'Neill, "Guiding light," South China Morning Post, January 14, 2008, p.A12
81. Choi Chi-yuk, "Retired generals discuss trust mechanism," South China Morning Post, June 3, 2009, p.A7
82. Lawrence Chung, "Cross-strait links to be further expanded," Sunday Morning Post, April 19, 2009, p. 5
82. Bloomberg, "Beijing must remove missiles to extend thaw, Ma says," South China Morning Post, August 1, 2009, p. A6
82. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwanese military takes fresh beating over faulty missiles," South China Morning Post October 7, 2009, p.A9

82. AFP, "Taiwan sounds alarm over military balance," The Standard, October 21, 2009, p.14
83. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwan to end conscription, cut force's size," South China Morning Post, March 10, 2009, p.A5
83. Lawrence Chung and Minnie Chan, "Facing up to army's failings, Ma makes disaster relief its 'main job'," South China Morning Post, August 19, 2009, p.1
83. Editorial, "The Taiwan dilemma that Beijing understood," South China Morning Post, August 28, 2009, p.A12
83. Mark McDonald, "Taiwan risks China's ire with visit by Dalai Lama," International Herald Tribune, August 28, 2009, p.1
83. Xie Yu, "Dalai Lama Taiwan tour denounced," China Daily, August 28, 2009, p.1
84. Ted Galen Carpenter, "Storm warning," South China Morning Post, September 26, 2009, p.A11
84. Kyodo and Associated Press, "PLA, Taiwanese officers to meet on training course," South China Morning Post, March 31, 2009, p.A6
86. Lawrence Chung, "Chen hit with more charges at pretrial hearing on graft case," South China Morning Post, January 20, 2009, p.1
86. Lawrence Chung, "DPP allies urge Chen to admit corruption," South China Morning Post, January 23, 2009, p.A5
86. AFP, "Chen faces new graft rap as bail bid flops," The Standard, July 14, 2009, p.14
86. Lawrence Chung, "Plead guilty, spare our children, wife urges Chen," South China Morning Post, July 2, 2009, p.1
86. Kelly Chan, "Chen Shui-bian's daughter faces her first charge: perjury," South China Morning Post, June 4, 2009, p.A6
86. Lawrence Chung, "Chen, wife indicted on new graft charges," South China Morning Post, May 6, 2009, p.A8
86. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwan's 'trial of the century' under way," South China Morning Post, March 27, 2009, p.A7
86. Lawrence Chung, "Judge rejects Chen's request to summons Ma and former leaders," South China Morning Post, March 19, 2009, p.A6
87. Associated Press, "US mentor warns Ma over Chen trial 'circus'," Sunday Morning Post, January 18, 2008, p. 5
88. AFP, "Probe into Chen cash to Palau claims," The Standard, November 11, 2009, p. 15
88. AP, "Uygurs on Palau set to lose half of fellow Muslims on islands," South China Morning Post, November

4, 2009, p. A12

88. AP, "Palau to create world's first shark sanctuary," South China Morning Post, September 26, 2009, p. A9
89. Lawrence Chung, "Details of Chinag Kai-shek's attempts to recapture mainland to be made public," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A4
90. Lawrence Chung, "Jailed for life, Chen and wife go down in history," South China Morning Post, September 12, 2009, p.1
90. Reuters, "Chen appeals life term," China Daily, September 15, 2009, p.H2
90. Lawrence Ching, "Chen returned to jail after judges reject bail request," South China Morning Post, September 25, 2009, p.A7
90. _____, "Taiwan is US soil, so set me free, Chen says," South China Morning Post, September 23, 2009, p.1
90. _____, "Chen could face treason charges," South China Morning Post, October 15, 2009, p.A8
90. _____, "Chen and allies on new graft charges," South China Morning Post, September 23, 2009, p.A4
91. Will Clem, "Taiwan's top envoy arrives for third cross-strait talks in Nanjing," Sunday Morning Post, April 26, 2009, p.6
91. AFP, "Ma calls for an economic pact," Sunday Morning Post, February 22, 2009, p.5
91. Associated Press, "Trade pact could open Taiwan to investment," South China Morning Post, March 21, 2009, p.A6
91. Lawrence Chung, "Hu and Ma trade messages in cross-strait first," South China Morning Post, July 28, 2009, p.A6
92. Martin Zhou, Lawrence Chung and Frederick Yeung, "China Mobile planning first Taiwan foray," South China Morning Post, April 30, 2009, p.1
92. Frederick Yeung, "China Mobile's Taiwan tie-up to reduce charges," South China Morning Post, May 5, 2009, p.B6
92. AFP, "Taiwan looking to build strait bridge," The Standard, February 6, 2009, p.13
92. Bonnie Chen and AFP, "Taiwan WHO dream fulfilled," The Standard, April 30, 2009, p.10
92. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwan to join WHO forum as observer," South China Morning Post, April 30, 2009, p.A7
92. Keith Bradsher, "Beijing drops objection to role for Taiwan in W.H.O.," International Herald Tribune, April 30, 2009, p.2
92. Will Clem, "Cross-strait cultural ties cannot be erased, KMT chairman tells nanjing students," South China Morning Post, June 1, 2009, p.A8

92. Julian Ryall, "Taiwan's top negotiator withdraws resignation," South China Morning Post, May 9, 2009, p.A5
92. Will Clem and Choi Chi-yuk, "KMT chief hints he may make way for Ma in party's interests," South China Morning Post, June 2, 2009, p.A6
92. Ng Tze-wei, "Hu urges vision in dealing with Taiwan issue," South China Morning Post, May 27, 2009, p.A6
93. Lawrence Chung, "Ma likely to announce bid for KMT post today," South China Morning Post, June 10, 2009, p.A7
93. □, "I will reform the KMT, Taiwan's Ma promises," South China Morning Post, June 16, 2009, p.A6
93. Agencies, "Ma aide denies drift towards reunification," South China Morning Post, June 18, 2009, p.A5
93. Choi Chi-yuk, "Ma meets Clinton in El Salvador," South China Morning Post, June 3, 2009, p.A6
94. Wu Jiao and Xie Yu, "DPP leader comes with 'new voice'," China Daily, May 22, 2009, p.1
94. Taiwan Special Report, South China Morning Post, May 29, 2009
94. Reuters, "Taiwan Q1 GDP saps by 10.24%," China Daily, May 22, 2009, p.H6
94. Robin Kwong, "Taiwan economy declines by a record 10.24%," Financial Times, May 24, 2009, p.3
94. Liu Yiyu, "Taiwan to open first pavilion at CIFIT," China Daily, June 18, 2009, p.H2
94. Will Clem, "Plan to boost cross-strait maritime links," South China Morning Post, May 17, 2009, p.5
94. Denise Tsang, "Recovery hopes as Taiwan export orders fall less than expected," South China Morning Post, May 26, 2009, p.B1
94. John Foley, "China can't cure all of Taiwan's trade ills," International Herald Tribune, June 10, 2009, p.22
94. Perris Lee Chon Siong and Daniel Ong Kian Hong, "Taiwan cuts its forecast after 1st-quarter slump," The Wall Street Journal, May 22-24, 2009, p.2
94. Stephen Chen, "Taiwanese bulbs light up Beijing," South China Morning Post, September 29, 2009, p.A6
94. Song Hongmei and Hu Yang, "Veterans and new comers flock to Nanjing," China Daily, September 22, 2009, p.19
95. Ng Tze-wei, "Tibet and Taiwan top concerns for Beijing in ties with US, experts say," South China Morning Post, September 24, 2009, p.A6
95. AFP, "First cross-strait relics exchange," South China Morning Post, September 24, 2009, p.A6
95. Lawrence Chung and Agencies, "Bronze relic row deepens in Taiwan," South China Morning Post, October

8, 2009, p. A4

95. Mark O'Neill, "Island of Quemoy mulls Taiwan's first casino," South China Morning Post, October 13, 2009, p.1
95. AFP, "First cross-strait relics exchange," South China Morning Post, September 24, 2009, p.A6
96. Frank Ching, "Staying the course," South China Morning Post, October 14, 2009, p.A15
96. Lawrence Chung, "Reunification with Taiwan remains a pressing issue," South China Morning Post, September 20, 2009, p.A10
96. Xie Yu, "Coastal cities help build firm bridges across the Straits," China Daily, June 26, 2009, p. 11
96. China Baily/CAN, "Taiwan universities aim for mainland students," China Daily, October 20, 2009, p.H2
97. Chloe Lai, "Dictionary to help build cross-strait cultural ties," South China Morning Post, July 13, 2009, p.A6
97. Lawrence Chung, "Summit to discuss language unification," South China Morning Post, July 10, 2009, p.A9
98. Fanny W.Y. Fung, "Taipei's man in HK hails watershed year of relations," South China Morning Post, June 12, 2009, p. A5
98. Gary Cheung, "Official Taiwan visit to pave way for deeper ties," South China Morning Post, June 13, 2009, p.A4
98. Fanny W.Y. Fung, "Tsang to be invited to make Taiwan trip," South China Morning Post, June 26, 2009, p.A3
98. Natalie Chiu and Wong Ka-chun, "Taiwan clears way for Hong Kong ETFs," South China Morning Post, May 23, 2009, p.B3
98. Lawrence Chung and Fanny W.Y. Fung, "Taiwanese groups seek boycott of Jackie Chan film in 'freedom' row," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A3
98. Joseph Lee, "Tsang outlines Taiwan initiatives," China Daily, October 15, 2009, p.H1
104. Michael Richardson, "China casts wide net for petroleum security," South China Morning Post, May 26, 2009, p.A11 2009, p.B1
105. Bloomberg, "CIC invests US$939m in Kazakh gas firm," South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p.B2
105. Eric Ng, "CNPC offers US$14.5b for 75pc of energy firm YPF," South China Morning Post, July 7,
105. Woods Lee, "Iran invites China to take part in US$43b oil projects," South China Morning Post, July 8, 2009, p.B1

106. Ben Simpfendorfer, "Beijing's 'Marshall Plan'," International Herald Tribune, November 4, 2009, p.6
106. Gina Chon, "China faces Iraq oil strife," The Wall Street Journal, May 22-24, 2009, p.3
106. Michael Richard, "Diversion ahead," South China Morning Post, August 25, 2008, p.A15
106. Dana Cimilluca, Rick Carew, Shai Oster, Alex Wilson and Chuin-Wei Yap, "China's resource quest faces new hurdles," The Wall Street Journal, June 8, 2009, p.5
107. Peter G. de Krassel, Custom Maid Knowledge for New World Disorder, (Hong Kong, CAL Books), pp 384-390
107. Sunanda Creagh and Titto Belo, "China expands its presence in East Timor," International Herald Tribune, September 15, 2009, p.15
108. Denise Tsang, Carol Chan and Maria Chan, "Chinalco stake deal with Rio faces collapse," South China Morning Post, June 5, 2009, p. B1
108. Woods Lee, "Mainland has trump card in ore price talks," South China Morning Post, June 29, 2009, p.B4
108. Howard Winn and Reuters, "China fires volley before iron ore contract talks," South China Morning Post, October 17, 2009, p. B1
108. Howard Winn, "Iron ore dispute backfires, with prices up 80pc," South China Morning Post, October 16, 2009, p.1
108. Zhang Qi, "China props up Rio's Q3 ore output," China Daily, October 15, 2009, p.13
108. Zhang Qi and Li Xiaokun, "Oz stumps Chinese investment again," China Daily, September 25, 2009, p. 13
109. Ding Qingfen, "Crude, iron ore imports up in July," China Daily, August 12, 2009, p. 13
109. Wang Xiangwei, "East and West meet a little less comfortably after Rio Tinto arrests," South China Morning Post, July 20, 2009, p.A4
109. Staff, "Ganbei culture 'kills' Anhui village leader," China Daily, November 9, 2009, p.5
109. Agencies, "Party spirit kills again," The Standard, November 10, 2009, p.14
111. Yao Ying, "Western firms, practice what you preach," China Daily, August 13, 2009, p. 8
111. Martin Zhou, "Hu's Rio role shows stakes have risen," South China Morning Post, July 14, 2009, p.A5
111. Zhang Qi, "China may run with Brazil ore," China Daily, August 5, 2009, p. 13
112. Eric Ng, "Yanzhou Coal eyes miner in Australia," South China Morning Post, August 11, 2009, p. B1
112. Reuters, "Chinese bidder tries again for coal miner," October 13, 2008, p.17
113. Agencies, "First ministerial resignation for Rudd," South China Morning Post, June 5, 2009, p.A11

113. Wang Linyan, "Fear grips students in Australia," China Daily, August 26, 2009, p.2
114. Bloomberg, "China likely to buy Canadian dollars," South China Morning Post, December 24, 2009, p. B10
114. Tyler Bridges, "Beijing's big rumba," South China Morning Post, July 14, 2009, p.A12
115. Zhang Haizhou, "Viva la progress: China's Latin links," China Daily, April 8, 2009, p.10
115. Sun Hongbo, "Toward better synergy with Latin America," China Daily, June 16, 2009, p.8
115. Jonathan Wheatley, "Brazil to supply oil to China in return for loans," Financial Times, February 20, 2009, p.5
116. Bloomberg, "Chavez offers to meet China's oil needs for next 200 years," South China Morning Post, February 19, 2009, p.A4
116. AFP, "World economy now revolves around Beijing, Chavez says," South China Morning Post, April 9, 2009, p.A5
118. Eric Ng, "Colombia taps China in push to increase oil and gas output," South China Morning Post, November 25, 2009, p. B1
118. Jonathan Wheatley, "Brazil to supply oil to China in return for loans," Financial Times, February 20, 2009. p.5
120. Agencies, "Putin arrives for talks expected to focus on gas," South China Morning Post, October 13, 2009, p.A7
120. Li Xing, "China, Russia take friendship forward," China Daily, October 14, 2009, p.1
120. Reuters, "China, Russia boost ties with deals worth US$3.5b," South China Morning Post, October 14, 2009, p.B6
121. AP, "Sino-Russian ties rooted in economics," South China Morning Post, October 16, 2009, p.B8
122. Sharon LaFraniere and John Grobler, "The high price of accepting Beijing's aid," International Herald Tribune," September 23, 2009, p.1
122. Toh Han Shih, "Chinese loans go a long way in Africa," South China Morning Post, July 20, 2009, p.B4
122. Agencies, "Wen pledges US$10b loan to Africa," November 9, 2009, p.15
122. Sharon LaFraniere and John Grobler, "The high cost of accepting Beijing's aid," International Herald Tribune, September 23, 2009, p. 1
123. Barney Jopson, "Chinese copper entrepreneurs flee," Financial Times, February 20, 2009, p.3
124. AP, "Guinea's junta claims US$7b Chinese lifeline," South China Morning Post, October 16, 2009, p.A13

127. Associated Press, "China developing 'disruptive' military technologies, says US," South China Morning Post, March 26, 2009, p.A11
127. Minnie Chan, "Beijing dismisses Pentagon report as fear-mongering," South China Morning Post, March 27, 2009, p.A6
128. AFP, "Cadets learn to 'know the enemy'," China Daily, March 24, 2009, p.11
129. Associated Press, "American weapons dealers seek new markets," South China Morning Post, June 15, 2009, p.A11
129. Cui Xiaohuo and Peng Kuang, "Defense talks 'best in decade'," China Daily, March 2, 2009, p.2
129. Reuters, "Taiwan renews bid to buy US fighter aircraft," South China Morning Post, March 16, 2009, p.A5
130. Greg Torode, "US makes China one of its four top targets for spying," South China Morning Post, September 17, 2009. p.1
132. Richard Halloran, "US-Japan alliance now an open question," South China Morning Post, September 15, 2009, p.A12
133. Reuters, "Radar-evading US warplanes patrol Pacific," Sunday Morning Post, March 1, 2009, p.7
133. Li Xiaokun, "Protest lodged against US incursion," China Daily, March 11, 2009, p.
133. AFP, "US surveillance vessels to have armed escort in South China Sea," South China Morning Post, March 14, 2009, p.A7
133. Cui Xiaohuo, "Sino-US sea standoff appears to have ended," China Daily, March 20, 2009, p.1
133. Editorial, "No need for US ships to ruffle the diplomatic seas," Sunday Morning Post, March 22, 2009, p.10
133. Nick Gentle and Greg Torode, "US ship risks new China flashpoint," Sunday Morning Post, March 22, 2009, p.1
133. Michael Richardson, "Ripple Effect," South China Morning Post, March 11, 2009, p.A15
133. Editorial, "Moderation needed in Sino-US war of words," South China Morning Post, March 11, 2009, p.A14
133. Minnie Chan, "Naval incident seen as test of US' China policy," South China Morning Post, March 11, 2009, p.A5
133. Kristine Kwok, "Clash will not have major impact, say analysts," South China Morning Post, March 11, 2009, p.A5
133. Ivan Zhai and AFP, "Chinese vessel arrives to patrol disputed island waters," South China Morning Post, Monday 16, 2009, p.A5

133. AP, "US Navy vessels collide near Persian Gulf," South China Morning Post, March 21, 2009, p.A9
133. Associated Press and Minnie Chan, "US ship in Yellow Sea standoff," South China Morning Post, May 6, 2009, p.1
133. Li Xiaokun, "Sub, sonar collision 'inadvertent'," China Daily, June 15, 2009, p.2
134. Reuters, "China tells US to slow then stop surveillance," South China Morning Post, August 28, 2009, p.A4
134. Greg Torode, "US wants China deal on rules for naval incidents," South China Morning Post, February 19, 2009, p.A1
134. Jim Hoagland, "Japan upheaval a challenge for Obama," Sunday Morning Post, September 6, 2009, p.10
135. Agencies, "Kamei blames 'unbridled capitalism' for credit crisis," South China Morning Post, September 17, 2009, p.B6
135. Kenneth McCallum, "Hatoyama vows to take steps to revitalize Japan economy," The Wall Street Journal, September 25-27, 2009, p.15
135. AFP, "Hatoyama decries the excesses of capitalism," South China Morning Post, October 27, 2009, p.A9
136. Kristine Kwok and AFP, "In first meeting, Hu and Hatoyama agree to pursue closer ties," South China Morning Post, September 23, 2009, p.A6
136. Bill Savadove, "Why the pain lingers for China and Japan," Sunday Morning Post, October 4, 2009, p.11
136. Will Clem, "Minister backs Japan's idea of 'Asian Union'," South China Morning Post, September 30, 2009, p.A8
136. Kristine Kwok, "'Taiwan a nationality on Japan visa'," South China Morning Post, March 20, 2009, p.A6
136. Kyodo, "Envoy retracts remark about Taiwan's status," Sunday Morning Post, May 3, 2009, p.6
138. AFP, "Japanese warships sent to help patrol waters off Somalia," South China Morning Post, March 14, 2009, p.A10
138. AFP, "Japan's new light carrier 'for defensive use only'," South China Morning Post, March 19, 2009, p.A9
140. AFP, "Taiwan to slash troop numbers," The Standard, March 17, 2009, p.12
140. Agencies, "US may sell more arms to Taiwan as PLA grows," South China Morning Post, February 14, 2009, p.A7
140. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwan eyeing US stealth fighters for 'defensive defence'," South China Morning Post, March 17, 2009, p.A6
141. Lawrence Chung, "Taiwan softens its defence policy in new sign of warming ties," South China Morning

Post, March 17, 2009, p.1

142. Associated Press, "US to set up office for cyberspace security," South China Morning Post, May 30, 2009, p.A8

143. Staff Reporters, "Hackers tap Wen's work report," South China Morning Post, April 1, 2009, p.1

143. Stephen Chen and Greg Torode, "China 'to put weapons in space'," South China Morning Post, November 3, 2009, p.1

144. AFP, "Specialists uncover 'GhostNet' spying op," The Standard, March 30, 2009, p.15

144. Siobhan Gorman and Yochi J. Dreazen, "New Military Command to Focus on Cybersecurity," The Wall Street Journal, April 22, 2009, p.A2

144. AFP, "Fed chairman Bernanke is victim of identity-theft," South China Morning Post, August 28, 2009, p.A10

144. AFP, "Thin Kim in rare appearance," The Standard, July 9, 2009, p.14

144. AFP, "Seoul brings forward launch of cyber force after fresh attack," South China Morning Post, July 10, 2009, p.A12

144. Associated Press, "Cyber attack on S Korea, US, launched via 5 nations," South China Morning Post, July 11, 2009, p.A9

144. Reuters, "North blamed for cyber attacks on Seoul, US," South China Morning Post, July 9, 2009, p.A9

145. The New York Times, "Pentagon builds army of hackers," South China Morning Post, June 1, 2009, p.A11

146. Greg Torode, "Concrete 'carrier' a signal of intent," South China Morning Post, October 19, 2009, p.1

146. Cary Huang, "Beijing signals intent to build aircraft carrier," South China Morning Post, December 24, 2008, p. 1

147. Editorial, "China must calm the waters as it builds navy," South China Morning Post, October 10, 2009, p.A12

147. Michael Richardson, "How China could scupper US naval power," South China Morning Post, January 10, 2009, p. A10

147. Minnie Chan, "How recent wars shaped the PLA Air Force," South China Morning Post, November 2, 2009, p. A7

147. Bloomberg, "US 'fears' anti-ship ballistic missile," South China Morning Post, November 18, 2009, p.A9

147. Andrew Moody, "Putting nations in perspective," China Daily, November 24, 2009, p. 18

147. Agencies, "US general urges dialogue on space," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p.A6

147. AFP, "Beijing 'opposes space arms race'," South China Morning Post, November 6, 2009, p.A7
147. Minnie Chan, "West suspects Beijing has developed space-age arms, despite Hu's denials," South China Morning Post, November 10, 2009, p. A6
147. Minnie Chan, "Hu advocates peaceful use of space," South China Morning Post, November 7, 2009, p.A5
147. Editorial, "Space arms race must be prevented," South China Morning Post, November 4, 2009, p. A14
148. Stephen Chen, "Space weapons scientists honoured," South China Morning Post, January 10, 2009, p. 1
149. Yang Yi, "Military support to peaceful development," China Daily, January 6, 2009, p. 8
149. Cui Xiaohuo, "Largest-ever mobilization of troops sees 50,000 move across nation," China Daily, August 12, 2009, p. 1
149. Minnie Chan, "Defence Ministry denies troop levels will be halved," South China Morning Post, August 28, 2009, p.A6
149. _____, "The top brass who can't fight," Sunday Morning Post, September 27, 2009, p.5
149. Editorial, "Keeping the peace with military might," South China Morning Post, December 24, 2008, p. A10
152. _____, "Beijing to build large destroyers," South China Morning Post, October 9, 2009, p.1
152. Josephine Ma, "From Middle Kingdom to maritime power," South China Morning Post, April 21, 2009, p. A6
153. Peter So, "Space-age ship kicks off 60th anniversary events," South China Morning Post, April 30, 2009, p.A6
153. Kristine Kwok, "Foreign ships grace PLA Navy's 60th anniversary party," South China Morning Post, April 21, 2009, p.A7
153. Greg Torode, "China's 'string of pearls' a rich naval bounty," South China Morning Post, October 10, 2009, p.A10
153. Cary Huang, "Deng's reforms see China standing on firmer ground," The People's Republic of China at Sixty," South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p. 4
153. Al Guo, "From Tiananmen, a sea of changes," The People's Republic of China at Sixty, South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p. 12
154. Demetri Sevastopulo and Kathrin Hille, "US admiral sails into smoother Chinese waters," Financial Times, April 22, 2009, p.4
154. Peng Kuang and Yu Meng, "US commanders will attend PLA fleet review," China Daily, April 8, 2009, p.2
154. Greg Torode, "Keating aims to share burden of naval hegemony," South China Morning Post, February 21, 2009, p.A14

157. Minnie Chen, "Advanced missiles to feature in big parade," South China Morning Post, September 17, 2009, p.A6
157. Editorial, "Doubts about China's rise dangerous for all of us," South China Morning Post, September 29, 2009, p.A12
157. Douglas Paal, "China stands up and shows its strength," South China Morning Post, October 2, 2009, p.A13
157. AP, "Glimpse of weapons that project power offers caution to US, region, analysts say," South China Morning Post, September 15, 2009, p.A6
157. Greg Torode, "China's might and the maybes," South China Morning Post, September 29, 2009, p.1
157. Staff, "China stands up," The Peoples Republic at Sixty, South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p. 8
157. Wang Xiangwei and Shi Jiangtao, "Mayor predicts all will go to plan on a day to remember," South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p.A6
157. Minnie Chan and Associated Press, "PLA to show off six new weapons systems at National Day parade," South China Morning Post, September 23, 2009, p.A6
157. AFP, "US calls for more military liaison," South China Morning Post, October 15, 2009, p.A9
158. Fareed Zakaria, "Is Robert Gates a Genius," Newsweek, April 20, 2009, p. 9
158. Staff, "By The Numbers-Hey Big Spender," Newsweek, June 22, 2009, p. 9
158. Minnie Chen, "China, war shop of the world? Arms industry poised to be global player," South China Morning Post, October 17, 2009, p.A5
154. Minnie Chan, "Navy has plenty of catching up to do, experts say," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A6
154. Reuters, "Rudd tries to calm Beijing on navy build-up," South China Morning Post, May 2, 2009, p.A8
154. Stephen Chen, "Money no object in race to the bottom of the sea," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A6
154. Stephen Chen, "Will it be the older model or the new submarine?," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A7
154. Minnie Chan, "Navy has plenty of catching up to do, experts say," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A6
154. Minnie Chan, "Navy has plenty of catching up to do, experts say," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.A6

155. Joseph Sternberg, "Chinese Show and Tell," The Wall Street Journal, November 6, 2008, p. 20
155. August Cole, "China's military shadow," The Wall Street Journal, February 20, 2008, p. 8
155. Minnie Chan, "Military plans to modernize, be ready for anything by mid-century," South China Morning Post, January 21, 2009, p.A8
155. Serge Schmemmann, "Cold War, hot words," International Herald Tribune, July 24, 2009, p.6
156. The New York Times, "Russian subs patrol US east coast for first time in 15 years," August 6, 2009, p. A11
156. Peter Kammerer, "New great white fleet," South China Morning Post, October 10, 2008, p. A21
156. Eric Talmadge, "Big dog' keeps guard on the PLA," Sunday Morning Post, November 23, 2008, p. 9
158. Kristine Kwok, "PLA ships leave for Somalia pirate patrols," South China Morning Post, December 27, 2008, p.1
158. Barbara Demick, "China may fight piracy off Somalia," Los Angeles Times, December 18, 2008, p. A11
158. Wang Xiangwei, "Nation shows off its military strength," South China Morning Post, December 29, 2008, p A5
158. Associated Press, "Defence spending expected to hit US$360b by 2020, analyst says," Sunday Morning Post, August 3, 2996
158. Jonathan Power, "In the firing line," South China Morning Post, July 9, 2008, p. A13
158. Kristine Kwok, "PLA ships leave for Somalia pirate patrols," South China Morning Post, December 27, 2008, p.1
158. Lawrence Chung, "PLA's escort of ship puts Ma in difficult position," South China Morning Post, January 14, 2009, p.A6
158. Michael Richardson, "China has a long way to go as naval power," South China Morning Post, January 14, 2009, p.A11
159. Jeffrey Sachs, "Armed and dangerous," South China Morning Post, May 25, 2009, p. A15
159. Associated Press and Reuters, "China No 2 military spender, group says," South China Morning Post, June 9, 2009, p.A6
160. Alex Lo, "US is guarding China's nuclear 'secrets'," South China Morning Post, November 20, 2008, p.A12
160. AP-Reuters, "US nuclear list posted on Internet by mistake," China Daily, June 4, 2009, p.12
161. AP, "China 'gave watchdog Iranian nuclear details'," South China Morning Post, April 3, 2008, p.1
161. Agencies, "China calls for atomic giants to cut stocks," Sunday Morning Post, May 24, 2009, p.5

161. John R. Bolton, "A fast way to lose the arms race," International Herald Tribune, May 26, 2009, p.6
161. Editorial, "The Test Ban Treaty," International Herald Tribune, May 26, 2009, p.6
161. Richard Halloran, "Obama brings out the nuclear umbrella," South China Morning Post, June 22, 2009, p.A15
162. Fu Jing and Zhang Haizhou, "Nuke-free world urged," China Daily, September 25, 2009, p.1
162. Reuters, AP and China Daily, "Premier pushes for nuclear-free peninsula," China Daily, October 5, 2009, p.1
162. Gwynne Dyer, "Set an example on nuclear disarmament," South China Morning Post, July 11, 2009, p.A11
163. Agencies, "US and China hail talks on defence, but tensions linger," South China Morning Post, June 25, 2009, p.A5
163. William Owens, "True security," South China Morning Post, August 15, 2008, p.A15
165. David Ignatius, "We're in this together," South China Morning Post, March 14, 2009, p.A13
165. Tom Holland, "Hong Kong to suffer most from G20 trade hypocrisy," South China Morning Post, March 17, 2009, p.B10
165. Ambrose Evans-Pritchard, "Only united front at G20 can save world from ruin," The Standard, March 30, 2009, p. 19
165. Donald Kirk, "Failure of G20 could raise the threat of war," South China Morning Post, March 27, 2009, p.A13
165. Peter Kammerer, "Out to lunch," South China Morning Post, April 3, 2009, p.A15
165. Indira A.R. Lakshmanan, "Bush sets China course, but will Obama follow?," The Global Edition of The New York Times, December 10, 2008, p.2
165. Linda Lim, "Asia to the rescue?" South China Morning Post, October 7, 2008, p.A11
165. Agence France-Presse, "Nostalgic Bush salutes Sino-US relations," Sunday Morning Post, November 23, 2008, p.7
165. Associated Press, "Obama names two envoys for summit," South China Morning Post, November 14, 2008, p.A9
165. Agencies, "Leaders stand by free trade," China Daily, November 2, 2008, p.1
166. Tom Orlik, "Can Obama resist the call of protectionism?" South China Morning Post, January 20, 2009, p.A11
166. Editorial, "How G20 recognized the new economic order," South China Morning Post, April 4, 2009,

p.A10

166. Rudi Prenzlin, "Misfiring mandarin," The Standard, March 30, 2009, p.21

166. Bloomberg, "Geithner urges G20 to take forceful action and calls for more IMF funds," South China Morning Post, March 13, 2009, p.B7

166. Kenneth Rogoff, "New thinking," South China Morning Post, April 1, 2009, p.A11

166. Ai Guo, "Hu returns home from G20 on a high note," South China Morning Post, April 4, 2009, p.A6

166. McClatchy-Tribune, "End of an era □ how world leaders closed the door on unbridled capitalism," South China Morning Post, April 4, 2009, p.A6

166. Steven Weisman, "Feeling the pressure of G20 promises," South China Morning Post, October 2, 2009, p.A13

166. Reuters-China Daily, "G20 seeks to nurture economic recovery," China Daily, September 25, 2009, p.3

166. Yi Xianrong, "Did the US learn the lesson?" Chona Daily, September 25, 2009, p. 8

166. Ni Jianjun, "Summit to map recovery route," September 24, 2009, p.8

166. Reuters, Zhang Haizhou and Tan Yingzi, "Obama calls for global balance," China Daily, September 22, 2009, p.1

166. Bloomberg, "Soaring government debt is next challenge," South China Morning Post, September 25, 2009, B. 16

166. Bloomberg News, "Regulatory shake-up threatens lenders," China Daily, September 22, 2009, p.17

166. Francesco Guerrera, "Fed accelerates drive to tackle bankers' pay," Financial Times, September 23, 2009, p.1

166. Bloomberg, "G20 to crack down on banker pay," South China Morning Post, September 26, 2009, p.B1

166. Bloomberg, "Executives at rescued US firms face 50pc pay cuts," South China Morning Post, October 25, 2009, p.B1

167. Serena Ng and Aaron Lucchetti, "Congress takes on credit-ratings services," The Wall Street Journal, September 24, 2009, p.M1

167. Alan Beattie, "G20 are accused of repeated use of trade sanctions," Financial Times, September 15, 2009, p.1

167. Fu Jing and Zhang Haizhou, "Take Sino-US ties to 'new level': Presidents," China Daily, September 24, 2009, p.1

167. Agencies, "Hu calls for end to trade barriers," South China Morning Post, September 25, 2009, p.A12

167. Wang Di and Ron Matthews, "Free trade and globalization," China Daily, October 9, 2009, p.8
167. Editorial, "Chance for change," China Daily, September 16, 2009, p.8
167. Denise Tsang, "China hits out at US duties on steel pipes," South China Morning Post, November 7, 2009, p.B3
167. Ding Qinfen, "Steel firms blast US' latest levies," China Daily, November 26, 2009, p, 3
169. Reuters, "IMF chief no stranger to controversy in a turbulent career," South China Morning Post, October 20, 2008, p.A11
169. Stefan Wagstyl and Jan Clenski, "Red faces as fund forced to fix error," Financial Times, May 7, 2009, p.14
169. Agencies, "IMF likely to revise up 2010 growth forecast," South China Morning Post, June 20, 2009, p. B1
170. Reuters, "IMF chief warns that worst is far from over," China Daily, June 16, 2009, p.17
170. Bloomberg, "Credit crisis losses may reach US$4.1tr, says IMF," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, p.B1
170. Peter Gumbel, "IMF 2.0," Time 20, 2009, p.22
170. Xin Zhiming, "IMF 'needs reform' to raise more funds," China Daily, March 30, 2009, p.1
171. Bob Davis, "IMF is poised to be policy watchdog," The Wall Street Journal, September 24, 2009, p.4
171. The Last Word, Dominique Strauss-Kahn, "The Constant Crisis," Newsweek, October 5, 2009, p.64
171. Agencies, "IMF in resources push," The Standard, October 5, 2009, p.16
171. Xin Zhiming, "Larger IMF role poses questions," China Daily, October 20, 2009, p.1
171. Tom Holland, "If the IMF's worried, maybe the rest of us can all relax," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p. B14
171. Bloomberg, "IMF chief sees G20 timeline, plan for balanced growth," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p. B10
172. Yi Xianrong, "China deserves greater role in IMF's reform," China Daily, March 24, 2009, p.8
172. Woods Lee, Jane Cai and Martin Zhou, "Beijing spells out desire for a bigger say," South China Morning Post, March 28, 2009, p.1
172. Agencies, "Big 4 emerging nations demand more say at IMF," South China Morning Post, March 16, 2009, p.B1
172. Editorial, "China not to be pushed around," The Standard, April 6, 2009, p.4

172. Cary Huang, "Scene set for Beijing to show its credentials as a world player," South China Morning Post, April 2, 2009, p.A8
172. Quentin Peel, "Pomp and circumlocution," Financial Times, July 8, 2009, p. 16
173. Chen Xiangyang, "Test for the power of G8-plus-5," China Daily, July 8, 2009, p.8
173. AP-Reuters, "G8 leaders meet on economy, climate," China Daily, July 9, 2009, p. 12
173. Reuters, "Berlusconi at centre of TV row," South China Morning Post, September 26, 2009, p.A11
173. Reuters, "G20 to take bigger role than G8: Brown," China Daily, September 25, 2009, p.2
- 173-174. Peter G. de Krassel, Custom Maid Knowledge for New World Disorder. Hong Kong, 2007, pp 80-83
175. Andy Xie, "If China loses faith the dollar will collapse," Financial Times, May 5, 2009, p.9
175. Peter Garnham, "Dollar's fall reflects loss of haven appeal," Financial Times, May 22, 2009, p.21
175. Reuters, "Your money's safe: Geithner," The Standard, June 2, 2009, p.4
175. Reuters, "Dollar assets secure, Geithner tells Beijing," South China Morning Post, June 2, 2009, p.B1
175. AFP, "Geithner on mission to win over Beijing," Sunday Morning Post, May 31, 2009, p.6
176. Zhang Ran, "Purchase of Treasuries to continue," China Daily, March 24, 2009, p.1
176. Robert Samuelson, "Flawed, yes, but still the global currency of choice," South China Morning Post, April 7, 2009, p.A13
176. Kevin Rafferty, "Still working for the Yankee dollar," South China Morning Post, March 28, 2009, p.A13
176. Paul Krugman, "The dollar trap," South China Morning Post, April 4, 2009, p.A11
176. Melinda Liu, "Beijing's dollar dilemma," Newsweek, October 26, 2009, p.11
176. Philip Bowring, "China and the sickly dollar," International Herald Tribune, October 13, 2009, p.7
176. Kenneth Rogoff, "China has lead role in coming dollar debacle," South China Morning Post, October 8, 2009, p. A13
176. Peter Garnham, "Dollar strengthens on China trade pact," Financial Times, September 15, 2009, p.22
176. Lu Qianjin, "Devaluation on dollar means trouble for China," China Daily, March 2-8, 2009, p.2
176. Jamil Anderlini, "China stuck in 'dollar trap'," Financial Times, May 25, 2009, p.1
176. Yang Mu & Chen Shaofeng, "Can China reduce foreign reserve risks?" China Daily, May 20, 2009, p.9
176. Andy Xie, "If China loses faith the dollar will collapse," Financial Times, May 5, 2009, p.9

176. Yang Mu and Lim Tin Seng, "Avoid dollar trappings to escape its trap," China Daily, June 19, 2009, p.9
176. Gertrude Chavez-Dreyfuss, "Greenback gambles," The Standard, November 16, 2009, p. 17
176. Alfred Liu, "Dollar to regain strength as US recovers: Mundell," The Standard, November 25, 2009, p. 12
176. Agencies, "Gold hits record on weaker dollar," The Standard, November 5, 2009, p. 13
176. John Waggoner, "Gold rises on dollar's drop," USA Today, November 11, 2009, p. 8A
176. Bloomberg, "Senate bill seeks to curb Fed authority," South China Morning Post, November 12, 2009, p. B16
176. Reuters, AFP, "Beijing lets rip at low US interest rates," The Standard, November 16, 2009, p. 11
176. Bill Savadove, "US to press for yuan rise against the dollar at talks," South China Morning Post, December 3, 2008, p.A8
176. Agencies, "Obama calls for action on deficit in case China stops buying debt," South China Morning Post, May 16, 2009, p.A7
176. Paul Krugman, "Playing with fire," South China Morning Post, May 16, 2009, p.A13
177. Andy Xie, "Playing with fire," South China Morning Post, November 19, 2009, p. A13
177. Liu Junhong, "Shifts in financial power play," China Daily, September 23, 2009, p. 9
177. Wolfgang Munchau, "We cannot inflate our way out of this crisis," Financial Times, May 25, 2009, p.7
177. David Brooks, "The great winding down," South China Morning Post, June 13, 2009, p.A11
177. The New York Times, "Inflation worries drive dollar to 5-month low," South China Morning Post, May 25, 2009, p.B6
177. Reuters, "US 'should prepare' for 2nd round of stimulus," China Daily, July 8, 2009, p.17
177. Nouriel Roubini, "Double-dip danger," South China Morning Post, June 23, 2009, p.A11
179. Bloomberg News, "'Rambo Fed' comes out with all guns blazing," China Daily, March 20, 2009, p.17
182. The New York Times, "Dubai debt debt debacle a reminder that it's not over yet," Sunday Morning Post, November 29, 2009, p.8
185. Tian Li, "Are we staring at inflation? Read on to find it out," China Daily, September 24, 2009, p.9
186. Barrett Sheridan, "The Premature Exit," Newsweek, October 5, 2009, p.26
186. Pranab Bardhan, "Contradictions in terms," South China Morning Post, October 5, 2009, p.A15

186. Edmund L. Andrews and David E. Sanger, "Obama wary of vast new state role in economy," International Herald Tribune, September 15, 2009, p.1
187. Geoff Dyer, "Data leave economists cautious," Financial Times, January 23, 2009, p.4
187. Robert Samuelson, "Gap between US stimulus rhetoric and reality," South China Morning Post, July 21, 2009, p.A9
187. Matthew Philips, "Tarp, One Year Later," Newsweek, November 23, 2009, p. 10
187. Dennis Eng, "GDP fall is bigger than feared; outlook worsens," South China Morning Post, May 16, 2009, p.1
187. Richard Haass, "The return of realism in US foreign policy," South China Morning Post, May 5, 2009, p.A13
187. Robin Kwong, "A delicate détente," Financial Times, May 7, 2009, p.15
187. Bloomberg, "Sustained stimulus may help avoid 1930s mistakes," South China Morning Post, April 2, 2009, p.B4
187. Kenneth Rogoff and Carmen Reinhart, "Don't Buy The Chirpy Forecasts," Newsweek, March 30, 2009, p.29
187. Andy Xie, "The big burnout," South China Morning Post, October 21, 2009, p.A11
188. Reuters, "US recession forecast to stretch into next year," South China Morning Post, March 25, 2009, p.B6
188. Thompson Ayodele, "A sure way to make a depression 'great'," South China Morning Post, April 2, 2009, p.A13
188. Peter Kammerer, "The other depression," South China Morning Post, November 21, 2008, p.A15
188. Dennis Chong, "Crisis is worse than 1929 says Tsang," South China Morning Post, October 24, 2008, p.A3
188. Agencies, "US 'may be in longest recession' since WWII," China Daily, December 3, 2008, p.17
188. Steven Xu, "Danger signals," South China Morning Post, October 2, 2008, p.A15
189. Donald Tsang, "Resist temptation," South China Morning Post, November 3, 2008, p.A15
190. Editorial, "We must prepare for tough times ahead," South China Morning Post, August 20, 2008, p.A12
190. Cary Huang, "Mainland GDP growth weakens to 7-year low," South China Morning Post, January 23, 2009, p.B1
191. Bloomberg, "Stiglitz sees dollar risk, need for reserve system," South China Morning Post, August 22, 2009, p.B4

191. Joseph Stiglitz, "Socialism for the rich," South China Morning Post, June 15, 2009, p.A13
191. Bloomberg, "Stiglitz sees dollar risk, need for reserve system," South China Morning Post, August 22, 2009, p. B4
191. Paul Krugman, "Under strain," South China Morning Post, May 9, 2009, p.A13
191. James Dorn, "Socialism, US-style," South China Morning Post, June 1, 2009, p. A15
192. Zachary Karabell, "The U.S.-China Economic Bond," The Wall Street Journal, May 29-31, 2009, p.15
192. Michel Rocard, "A new capitalism with less focus on finance," South China morning Post, December 1, 2008, p.A15
194. Editorial, "The benefits of capitalism, but at an unbearable cost," Sunday Morning Post, August 2, 2009, p.8
194. Michel Rocard, "When capitalism took a turn for the worst," South China Morning Post, August 4, 2009, p.A11
194. Kathy Wong, "Attacker Soros lauds SAR for dollar defense," The Standard, June 16, 2009, p.7
194. Andy Xie, "Taming the beast," South China Morning Post, June 16, 2009, p.A13
195. Rana Foroohar, "Everything You Know About China Is Wrong," Newsweek, October 28, 2009, p.32
195. Chitrlekha Basu, "A thinker's CEO," China Daily, October 20, 2009, p.18
195. Editorial, "An America more like China, and vice versa," South China Morning Post, August 26, 2009, p.A12
195. Walter Russell Mead, "In Defense of Paleface Capitalism," Newsweek, April 20, 2009, p.19
195. James Dorn, "Socialist-market virus threatens US and China," South China Morning Post, July 31, 2009, p. A13
195. Frank Ching, "We come as equals," South China Morning Post, August 5, 2009, p.A13
196. Graham Ruddick, "Capitalism at 'turning point' claims Lord Mandelson," The Daily Telegraph, May 18, 2009, p. B1
196. Amartya Sen, "Adam Smith's market never stood alone," Financial Times, March 11, 2009, p.11
197. Agencies, "Crisis can be beaten in 18 months: Apec," South China Morning Post, November 24, 2008, p. 1
197. Dmitry Medvedev, "Apec rising," South China Morning Post, November 21, 2008, p.A15
197. Simon Tay, "Star attraction," South China Morning Post, October 31, 2009, p. A11
203. John Lee, "Leader by consent," South China Morning Post, August 18, 2009, p. A11

205. The New York Times, "Steel beam 'shrine' from 9/11 attack returned to Ground Zero," South China Morning Post, August 26, 2009, p.A8
205. Richard Halloran, "Slumbering US wakes up to a headless Asia," South China Morning Post, August 31, 2009, p.A11
205. Brad Webster, "After fumble, NFL plots a new blitz in China," China Daily, November 5, 2009, p. 22
205. Reuters, "Buffet bets $26b on US railway recovery," China Daily, November 5, 2009, p.17
205. Jeffrey E. Garten, "America Still Rules," Newsweek, August 3, 2009, p.24
205. Minxin Pei, "Playing Ball," South China Morning Post," December 29, 2008, p. A9
205. Bloomberg, "Buffett tells railroad staff he's betting on US West," South China Morning Post, December 23, 2009, p.B8
205. Bloomberg, "Buffett reduces stake in Moody's for sixth time," South China Morning Post, November 24, 2009, p. B4
206. Associated Press, "British teen is a king under sail," The Standard, August 28, 2009, p.15
206. Kate Murphy, "What a waste," South China Morning Post, September 5, 2009, p. C
206. Reuters, "Potshot," The Standard, November 4, 2009, p. 18
206. Frank Ching, "Cause for celebration," South China Morning Post, September 30, 2009, p. A17
207. Minnie Chan, "Homesickness 'worse than Somali pirates'," South China Morning Post, December 16, 2009, p.A6
208. Ivan Zhai, "Smugglers' haven turns to trade in used clothes," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p. A4
209. Editorial, "Paulson fails to put his own house in order," South China Morning Post, April 2, 2008, p.A14
209. Reuters, "Next US leader likely to review strategic economic dialogue," Sunday Morning Post, June 22, 2008, p.6
209. David Donadio, "At the sharp end," South China Morning Post, June 14, 2008, p.A15
209. James Fallows, "Be Nice To The Countries That Lend You Money," The Atlantic, December 8, 2008, p.62
209. Philip Bowring, "China's chance to lead the global economy," South China Morning Post, September 24, 2008, p.A17
209. Lau Nai-keung, "Proof that China will no longer be bullied," December 26, 2008, p.A8
209. Staff, "The second Long March," The Economist, December 13, 2008, p.30

209. Ting Shi, "Hail The Next Global Leader," South China Morning Post, September 30, 2009, p.A11
209. Daniel Gross, "Is America Losing At Globalization?" Newsweek, September 8, 2008, p. 46
210. David Ignatius, "Cup of cheer," South China Morning Post, March 21, 2009, p.A13
210. Editorial, "Beijing, not Washington, holds economic cards," June 3, 2009, p. A10
210. Martin Jacques, "The great transition," South China Morning Post, South China Morning Post, April 21, 2009, p. A13
210. Zhang Xin, "China crucial to world's recovery," China Daily, June 18, 2009, p.2
210. Robert Reich, "Why Economics Isn't A Zero-Sum Game," Newsweek, September 8, 2008, p.47
210. Justin Logan, "Trading places," South China Morning Post, July 16, 2008, p. A15
210. Kevin Rafferty, "Inclusion or new world disorder?" South China Morning Post, November 15, 2008, p.A13
210. David Milliband, "A Financial 9/11," Newsweek April 6/13, 2009, p.17
210. Gerald F. Selb, "U.S. Woes Open Door for China," The Wall Street Journal, December 23, 2008, p. A2
- 213 AP, "Rare map puts China at centre of the world," South China Morning Post, January 13, 2010, p.A8
213. Kathrin Hille, "Mao central to modern state's patriotic values," Financial Times, May 7, 2009, p.14
213. Zhuang Pinghui, "Mao makes a comeback in little red book shop," South China Morning Post, March 17, 2009, p.A6
213. Kristine Kwok and Raymond Li, "Brash best-seller seen adding fuel to the flames of nationalism," South China Morning Post, March 28, 2009, p.A7
213. Maura Reynolds, "World leaders agree to tighter economic controls," Los Angeles Times, November 16, 2008, pA3
214. Melinda Liu, "The Deep Roots of China's New Economic Nationalism," Newsweek, April 6/13, 2009, p.4
214. Denise Tsang, "Stimulus package will boost world economy: Hu," South China Morning Post, November 17, 2008, p.A11
214. You Nuo and Fu Jing, "Lend less to IMF, China cautioned," China Daily, March 17, 2009, p. 13
214. Agence France-Presse, "Loans and nuclear deal on Zardari agenda," South China Morning Post, October 16, 2008, p.A14
215. Joseph Cheng, "All eyes on Obama," South China Morning Post, January 17, 2009, p.A11
215. Rick Carew and James T. Areddy, "China Asserts Its Voice on Crisis," The Wall Street Journal, November

18, 2008, p.C3

215. Eric Ng and Jasmine Wang, "Beijing unveils more stimulus measures," South China Morning Post, February 20, 2009, p.B1

215. Cary Huang, "Beijing plans policy change on economy," South China Morning Post, July 13, 2009, p.1

216. Al Guo and Denise Tsang, "Beijing fears impact of crisis on jobs," South China Morning Post, November 21, 2008, p.1

216. Jin Liqun, "Time to shift focus to multi-sector growth," China Daily, October 21, 2008, p.8

216. Jane Cai and Martin Zhou, "Small firms in tight spot over financing," South China Morning Post, November 24, 2008, p.B5

217. Philip Bowring, "Free trade under threat," International Herald Tribune, December 23, 2008, p9

217. Choi chi-yuk, "Farmers are finally allowed to use land rights as loan collateral," Sunday Morning Post, April 12, 2009 p. 6

217. Reuters, "World Bank forecasts faster Chinese growth," International Herald Tribune, June 19, 2009, p.16
ina Morning Post, June 5, 2009, p.1

217. Michael Pettis, "Asia needs to ditch its growth model," Financial Times, May 20, 2009, p.9

217. Lau Nai-kung, "Savings: Pros weigh heavily against cons," China Daily, May 29, 2009, p.8

217. Woods Lee, "Reform elusive for mainland economy," South China Morning Post, June 6, 2009, p. B10

217. Victoria Ruan, "China plan unlikely to spur spending," The Wall Street Journal, May 27, 2009, p. M3

218. Le-Min Lim, "Mainlanders take dominant role in art auctions," Sunday Morning Post, October 11, 2009, p.11

218. Bettina Wassener, "The market for luxury goods tilts toward Asia," International Herald Tribune, October 13, 2009, p.1

218. Bloomberg, "While Gucci thrives, Gini shows wage gap widening," South China Morning Post, October 2, 2009, p.B2

218. Fox Yi Hu, "Crisis? What crisis? Flood of spending at HK$1b brand sale," South China Morning Post, February 20, 2009, p.C4

218. Raymond Li, "Frustration voiced over poor state of higher education," South China Morning Post, March 13, 2009, p.A7

218. Raymond Li, "50,000 jobs for teachers a boost for rural areas," South China Morning Post, March 20, 2009, p.A8

219. Reuters, "Heavy going," South China Morning Post, March 19, 2009, p.A4

219. Xie Chuanjiao, "Beijing govt unveils measures to cope with financial crisis," China Daily, March 24, 2009, p.3
219. Dan Steinbock, "A tale of two countries' economic growth and recovery," China Daily, August 20, 2009, p.9
219. Michael M. Phillips, "U.S. aims for shift in China economy," The Wall Street Journal, May 29-31, 2009, p.1
220. Ai Guo, "Millions of needy mainlanders to share 9b yuan holiday handout," South China Morning Post, January 10, 2009, p.A4
220. Editorial, "Flexible macro-control," China Daily, October 21, 2008, p.8
221. Agence France-Presse, "Wary eye cast over 50m bloggers in 'sensitive year'," South China Morning Post, January 16, 2008, p.A7
220. Minnie Chan, "President orders PLA to step into economic breach," South China Morning Post, March 13, 2009, p.A6
221. David Elmer, "PLA is no solution for army of jobless graduates," South China Morning Post, March 19, 2009, p. A13
221. Associated Press and Will Clem, "Top official urges tighter security," South China Morning Post, April 2, 2009, p.A4
221. Minnie Chan, "10,000 Hubei residents in clash with police," Sunday Morning Post, June 21, 2009, p.1
221. Minnie Chan, "Standoff triggered by simmering anger," Sunday Morning Post, June 21, 2009, p. 5
222. Kim Huang, "Guangdong police held hostage at riot," South China Morning Post, June 20, 2009, p.A5
223. Ng Tze-wei, "Role of armed police clarified," South China Morning Post, August 28, 2009, p. A4
222. Fiona Tam, "Villagers riot after row with officials," South China Morning Post, March 25, 2009, p.A5
222. Ng Tze-wei, "Cover-up of official bullying feared in 'schoolgirl prostitute' arrest," South China Morning Post, July 10, 2009, p.A8
222. Fiona Tam, "Villagers battle police over land," South China Morning Post, March 13, 2009, p.A8
222. Choi Chi-yuk, "Hui Muslims riot after traffic incident rights group says," South China Morning Post, April 3, 2009, p.A10
222. AFP, "1,000 police deployed to stop Hainan clashes," South China Morning Post, March 28, 2009, p.A4
222. Choi Chi-yuk, "PLA sentry stabbed in attack, a week after soldier on garrison guard duty shot dead," South China Morning Post, March 28, 2009, p. A4

222. Tan Yingzi and Hu Yinan, "Soldier killer still at large, armed," China Daily, March 24, 2009, p.5
223. Lan Tian, "Group purchase of apartments leads to public outcry," China Daily, August 28, 2009, p.5
223. Edward Wong, "Unrest puts China's grip on security in question," International Herald Tribune, July 20, 2009, p.1
225. Qin Xiaoying, "Legacy of May Fourth Movement endures," China Daily, April 30, 2009, p.9
226. Chris Yeung, "Thinking critically about next era of reform," South China Morning Post, May 6, 2009, p.A12
226. Martin Zhou, "May 4 passes with little official fanfare," South China Morning Post, May 5, 2009, p.A7
226. Associated Press, "May 4 protesters seek high ground," The Standard, May 5, 2009, p.15
226. AFP, "Testing times begin with anniversary of Hu's death," South China Morning Post, April 14, 2009, p.A6
228. Minnie Chan, "Falun Gong to hold rallies across world," South China Morning Post, April 25, 2009, p.A5
228. Minnie Chan, "800,000 recruited as informants in run-up to 60th anniversary," South China Morning Post, August 21, 2009, p. A4
228. Kristine Kwok, "Military parade and mass pageant to highlight 60th anniversary celebrations," South China Morning Post, August 25, 2009, p.A5
- 228 Andy Xie, "It won't float," South China Morning Post, November 3, 2009, p. A13
229. Choi Chi-yuk and Shi Jiangtao, "Urumqi lockdown after 156 die," South China Morning Post, July 7, 2009, p.1
229. Staff Reporters, "Riots blamed on fight at Guangdong factory," South China Morning Post, July 7, 2009, p.A3
230. Editorial, "Nothing can excuse the violence in Xinjiang," South China Morning Post, July 7, 2009, p.A10
230. Peter Foster, "Violence exposes ethnic tensions gripping China," The Standard, July 8, 2009, p.15
230. Will Clem, "Rumours abound in shaken city," South China Morning Post, July 20, 2009, p.A6
230. Martin Zhou, "Disorder in energy-rich region threatens mainland's economy," South China Morning Post, July 8, 2009, p.A4
230. AFP, "Ring of Steel," The Standard, July 9, 2009, p.2
230. Kathrin Hille and Richard McGregor, "Han seek revenge after Uighur rioting," Financial Times, July 8, 2009, p.4
230. Frank Ching, "Home-grown failure," South China Morning Post, July 15, 2009, p. A11

230. Dru Gladney, "Ethnic pandemic," South China Morning Post, July 13, 2009, p.A11
230. William Engdahl, "The hidden agenda behind Xinjiang violence," China Daily, July 16, 2009, p.9
231. Kristine Kwok, "Beijing presents 'evidence' Kadeer was behind riots," South China Morning Post, October 17, 2009, p.A4
231. Mimi Lau, "Five killed as protests continue to rock Urumqi," South China Morning Post, September 5, 2009, p.1
231. Shi Jiangtao, "Latest Urumqi unrest weighs on party boss," South China Morning Post, September 5, 2009, p.A4
232. Associated Press, "Islamic states largely quiet over clashes," South China Morning Post, July 15, 2009, p.A4
232. Greg Torode, "Al-Qaeda 'vows to avenge Uyghurs'," South China Morning Post, July 14, 2009, p.1
232. Greg Torode and Al Guo, "Beijing appeals to Muslims after al-Qaeda threat," South China Morning Post, July 15, 2009, p.1
232. Greg Torode, "US eyes anti-terror ties with China," South China Morning Post, July 19, 2009, p.1
232. Hagal Segal, "Al-Qaeda threat to China a worry for Hong Kong," South China Morning Post, October 16, 2009, p. A17
232. Greg Torode and Reuters, "Al-Qaeda leader targets China," South China Morning Post, October 8, 2009, p. 1
232. AFP and Shi Jiangtao, "Fighting terrorism on agenda in talks with Beijing, says Clinton," South China Morning Post, September 12, 2009, p. A6
234. Wang Xiangwel, "Smoking poses major dilemma for mainland," South China Morning Post, June 1, 2009 p. A6
234. Mark O'Neill, "Fighting big tobacco," South China Morning Post, June 2, 2009, p.A13
234. Edmond Tang, "A visitor looks at the wax figures of late Chinese leaders," China Daily, September 24, 2009, p. H1
235. AFP, "Cigs crusade a tall order for Yao," The Standard, October 14, 2009, p.13
235. Chen Weihua, "Tinkering with the tobacco regulations," China Daily, September 15, 2009, p.8
235. Will Clem, "Smoking ban faces an uphill battle in Shanghai," South China Morning Post, October 10, 2009, p.A4
235. Will Chen, "World Expo hands back sponsorship from tobacco firm," South China Morning Post, July 22, 2009, p. A5

235. Te-Ping Chen, "Smoke Rings," PostMagazine, July 26, 2009, p.22
236. Choi Chi-yuk and Shi Jiangtao, "Officials 'turned blind eye' to death factory, South China Morning Post, August 5, 2009, p. 1
236. He Huifeng, "Hunan's village of the damned," Sunday Morning Post, August 2, 2009, p. 1
236. Choi Chi-yuk, "Toxic villages look to Hunan for lessons," Sunday Morning Post, August 9, 2009, p. 6
236. Shi Jiangtao and He Huifeng, "Smelter defies closure order in poison row," South China Morning Post, August 9, 2009, p.1
236. Hu Yongqi, "More than 1,300 people poisoned in Hunan," August 21, 2009, p.5
236. AFP, "China hit by new poisoning scandal," The Standard, August 21, 2009, p. 6
237. Staff, "Suddenly vulnerable," The Economist, December 13, 2008, p.15
237. Katherine Ng, "Falling Fast," The Standard, December 11, 2008, p.1
237. Hugh Young, "How China's consumers will change the world," South China Morning Post, July 27, 2008, p.13
237. Ellen Frost, "Looming Presence," South China Morning Post, May 16, 2008, p.A15
237. Stephen Chen, "24m jobs must be found next year to ensure social order, says official," South China Morning Post, December 25, 2008, p.A6
237. Wu Jiao, "60% of Chinese will live in cities in 20 years," China Daily, August 20, 2008, p.2
237. Mimi Lau, "Infertility epidemic stalks the mainland's one-child generation," South China Morning Post, October 7, 2009, p.1
237. Mimi Lau, "Test-tube boy a stand-out success," South China Morning Post, October 7, 2009, p. A6
238. Ivan Zhai, "Retired army engineers stage rally over pension," South China Morning Post, December 19, 2008, p.A7
238. Agence France-Presse, "Soaring food prices raise risk of war, warns IMF," South China Morning Post, April 14, 2008, p.1
238. Cary Huang, "Going against the grain," South China Morning Post, April 23, 2008, p.A15
238. Melinda Liu, "China and the Great Pig Panic," Newsweek, February 11, 2008, p.22
239. Wang Zhuoqiong, "Farmers feed pigs harmful chemicals," China Daily, August 26, 2009, p.5
239. Ai Guo and Zhuang Pinghui, "Grain output target raised 10pc for 2020," South China Morning Post, April 9, 2009, p.A4

239. Chris Flood, "Demand from China lifts US soyabean prices," Financial Times, May 20, 2009, p.20
239. Jane Cai, "Beijing clips the wings of high-flying earners," South China Morning Post, April 11, 2009, p.B8
240. Jeffrey Friedman, "Bank Pay and the Financial Crisis," The Wall Street Journal, September 25-27, 2009, p. 13
240. Editorial, "Extraordinary Popular Delusions ..." The Wall Street Journal, September 24, 2009, p. 15
240. Rana Foroohar, "Laughs At Wall Street's Ego," Newsweek, November 23, 2009, p. 8
240. Perspectives, Newsweek, 30, 2009, p. 20
241. Jasmine Wang, "Mainland shops for global resources," South China Morning Post, December 30, 2008, p. B1
241. Greg Torode, "Legacy in Asia is secure," South China Morning Post, August 1, 2008, p.A13
241. Kristine Kwok and Maria Chan, "Beijing helps HK fight crisis," South China Morning Post, December 20, 2008, p1
242. Will Clem, "Beijing helps Taipei tackle financial crisis," South China Morning Post, December 22, 2008, p.1
242. Will Clem, "Beijing offers to stand by Taiwan amid crisis," South China Morning Post, December 21, 2008, p.1
242. Lau Nai-keung, "Adrift in a sea of troubles, no help in sight," South China Morning Post, November 28, 2008, p. A14
242. Patti Waldmeir and Jamil Anderlini, "Chinese investors nervously wait for bear market bail-out" South China Morning Post, September 11, 2008, p.27
244. Hu Yinan, "Takeover halted due to protests," China Daily, August 7, 2009, p.1
244. Fiona Tam, "Jilin steel chief sacked after deadly workers' riot," South China Morning Post, August 8, 2009, p.A4
244. Lilian Zhang, Anna Zhang and Will Clem, "Residents promise to make apartment protest an all-nighter," South China Morning Post, August 6, 2009, p. A7
244. Ivan Zhai, "Guangzhou struggles with African influx," South China Morning Post, August 8, 2009, p.A4
245. Ai Guo, "Ministry has no data on jobs of 200 million rural workers," South China Morning Post, July 25, 2009, p.A4
245. Andy Xie, "Here we go again," South China Morning Post, July 22, 2009, p.A11
246. Daniel Ren, "Explosion of rural credit increases risk," South China Morning Post, August 17, 2009, p. B1

246. Benjamin Scent, "Peg founder fears for mainland," The Standard, July 24, 2009, p.8
247. Maria Chan, "Yuan rise expected to continue but at far more leisurely pace," South China Morning Post, July 22, 2008, p.B3
247. Cary Huang and Maria Chan, "HK, mainland seal 200b yuan currency swap," South China Morning Post, January 21, 2009, p.B1
247. Jane Cai and Maria Chan, "Region's trading firms invited to use yuan," South China Morning Post, December 25, 2008, p.1
247. Maria Chan and Natalie Chiu, "Yuan trade payment could reach US$2tr," South China Morning Post, July 8, 2009, p.B1
247. Reuters, "Yuan faces long trek to dethrone dollar," South China Morning Post, July 7, 2009, p.B10
247. Jane Cai, "Economists hail yuan trade scheme as step to going global," South China Morning Post, December 26, 2008, p.1
247. Adam Chen, "Weaker yuan blip in balancing act," South China Morning Post, January 5, 2009, p.B5
248. Adam Chen, "An important step towards becoming a global currency," South China Morning Post, January 5, 2009, p.B5
248. Bi Xiaoning, "Yuan funds gain ground," China Daily August 26, 2009, p.14
248. Michael Pettis, "China cannot be the world's white knight," South China Morning Post, October 20, 2008, p.B14
249. Reuters, "China pushes for a new global super-currency," South China Morning Post, March 24, 2009, p.B1
249. Woods Lee and Adam Chen, "Super-currency proposal seen as good in long run," South China Morning Post, March 25, 2009, p.B3
249. Justin Fox, "Down with the dollar," Time, April 20, 2009, p.12
249. Cary Huang, "Beijing willing to help IMF, top banker says," South China Morning Post, March 24, 2009, p.1
249. James Dorn, "The dangers of a new global reserve currency," South China Morning Post, April 2, 2009, p.A13
249. Holger Schmieding, "Is the Euro at Risk?" Newsweek, April 20, 2009, p.24
249. Katherine Ng and Alfred Liu, "Yuan Milestone," The Standard, June 30, 2009, p.3
249. Frank Ching, "The price to pay for reserve currency status," South China Morning Post, June 2, 2009, p. A10

249. Zhang Ran, "Yuan set to play bigger global role," China Daily, May 22, 2009, p.13
249. Cary Huang, "Najib calls for expanded yuan role," South China Morning Post, June 5, 2009, p.A8
250. Thomas Palley, "Currency conundrum," South China Morning Post, South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p. A. 13
251. Reuters, "Islamic finance tipped for big leap in China," South China Morning Post, October 3, 2009, p. B3
251. Laurence Brahm, "Fellow Bric road," South China Morning Post, June 30, 2009, p.A11
251. Agencies, "'Bric' members urge reform of global finance," South China Morning Post, June 17, 2009, p.A7
252. Reuters, "Beijing set to buy up to US$50b in IMF bonds," South China Morning Post, June 3, 2009, p.B3
252. Liu Junhong, "BRIC building road to global economic recovery," China Daily, June 18, 2009, p.9
252. AFP, "IMF's first bond plan attracts emerging countries," South China Morning Post, June 15, 2009, p.B7
253. Katherine Ng, "Billions lost on global forays," The Standard, March 17, 2009, p, 10
253. Bi Xiaoning, "Chinese companies set for acquisitions despite past flops," China Daily, March 30-April 5, 2009, p.4
253. AFP, "Obama tries to allay Beijing's fears over investment in US," South China Morning Post, March 16, 2009, p. A4
253. Denise Tsang, "Beijing lines up US shopping binge," South China Morning Post, April 1, 2009, p.B6
253. You Nuo and Fu Jing, "Crisis an opportunity for China: Oxford scholars," China Daily, March 30, 2009, p.7
253. C. Fred Bergsten, "We risk calamity unless China safely offloads unwanted dollars," Financial Times, April 22, 2009, p.10
253. Sundeep Tucker and Robert Cookson, "China's losses from foreign derivatives turn political," Financial Times, September 15, 2009, p.23
253. James Dorn, "In excess," South China Morning Post, April 22, 2009, A13
253. Agencies, "China trims holdings of US Treasury bills," The Standard, June 16, 2009, p.13
253. Ambrose Evans-Pritchard, "Asia will author its own destruction if it triggers a crisis over US bonds," The Daily Telegraph, May 18, 2009, p.B5
254. Lu Jianxin and Edmund Klamann, "China may keep tight rein on I.P.O.'s to avoid market swings," International Herald Tribune, May 26, 2009, p.17
254. Zhang Jun, "Shanghai might alter finance center model," China Daily, May 25-31, 2009, p.2

254. Will Clem, Dennis Eng and Yvonne Liu, "Shanghai Disney park gets go-ahead," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p. 1
255. Enoch Yiu, "Shanghai no threat, says City of London mayor," South China Morning Post, June 9, 2009, p.B2
255. Reuters, "China to let foreign firms list in Shanghai exchange," International Herald Tribune, April 30, 2009, p.17
255. Daniel Ren and Nick Westra, "Foreign firms cleared for listing in Shanghai," South China Morning Post, April 30, 2009, p.B1
255. Christian Caryl with Mary Hennock, "Why Bow To China?" Newsweek, May 25, 2009, p. 48
255. Ding Qingfen, "Foreign investment freefall eases," China Daily, June 16, 2009, p.2
255. Duncan Hewitt, "No Time to retreat," Newsweek, May 25, 2009, p.70
255. Dan Steinbock, "A city on fast track to financial eminence," China Daily, June 16, 2009, p.9
256. Agencies, "Rogers: China to overcome recession first," China Daily, March 10, 2009, p.14
256. Reuters, "China can lead the world out, says UN adviser," South China Morning Post, March 12, 2009, p.B3
256. Andy Xie, "Bear Wrestling," South China Morning Post, March 12, 2009, A15
259. AFP, "Enter: Obama. Exit: Homeless," China Daily, January 16, 2009, p.11
260. Alan Beattie and Geoff Dyer, "Obama: China 'manipulating' the renminbi," Financial Times, January 23, 2009, p.1
261. Ng Tze-wei, "Wen calls for further strong ties after Bush" South China Morning Post, September 25, 2008, p. A10
261. Adam Chen and Woods Lee, "Geithner claim over yuan seen as just rhetoric," South China Morning Post, January 24, 2009, p.B3
262. Cai Hong, "Will Obama's China policy be a step forward?" China Daily, January 20, 2009, p.9
262. Richard Halloran, "Sino-US trust is still lacking, 30 years on," South China Morning Post, January 23, 2009, p.A11
262. Kristine Kwok, "Lack of Sino-US policy creates Obama enigma," South China Morning Post, January 21, 2009, p.A4
262. Reuters, "Clinton bashes China too woo voters in battleground state," South China Morning Post, March 31, 2008, p.A11

262. Agence France-Presse, "Clinton, Obama take fresh punches at China," South China Morning Post, April 16, 2008, p.A12
262. Leon Hadar, "China must be central to US global agenda," South China Morning Post, December 10, 2008, p.A17
262. Robert Zoellick, "The right course," South China Morning Post, December 25, 2008, p.A13
262. Richard N. Haass, "The World That Awaits," Newsweek, November 3, 2008, p.32
262. Tom Plate, "Obama and Hu need a special relationship," South China Morning Post, December 26, 2008, p.A.91
262. Ng Tze-wei, "Experts welcome Wen's dismissal of 'G2' idea," Sunday Morning Post, May 24, 2009, 5
262. Cary Huang, "China, US team up to tackle crisis," South China Morning Post, June 3, 2009, p.1
262. Agencies, "Obama calls for China and US to co-operate and shape century," South China Morning Post, July 28, 2009, p.1
262. Shen Dingli, "Sum of the parts," South China Morning Post, July 28, 2009, p.A11
262. Laurence Brahm, "Devil's in the details," South China Morning Post, July 28, 2009, p.A11
262. Ng Tze-wei, "Sino-US talks seen as laying good foundation," South China Morning Post, July 28, 2009, p.A4
262. Cary Huang, "Sino-US talks set direction for recovery," South China Morning Post, July 30, 2009, p.A4
262. Shi Jiangtao, "Lack of trust is hampering real progress on global warming, observers belief," South China Morning Post, July 30, 2009, p. A4
262. David Shambaugh, "Prospects of a strategic Sino-US ties high," China Daily, May 5, 2009, p.9
262. Kevin Rafferty, "G2 is a powerful but insufficient solution," South China Morning Post, June 3, 2009, p.B10
262. Agencies, "Now is not the time to focus on yuan rate, says IMF economist," South China Morning Post, January 30, 2009, p.B1
262. Elizabeth Holmes, "U.S. hopefuls plan for self-confident China," The Wall Street Journal, August 11, 2008, p. 11
262. Harvey Golub, "I vote No Confidence in Congress," The Wall Street Journal, November 6, 2008, p.21
262. James Dorn, "Olympian task," South China Morning Post, August 30, 2008, p.A13
262. Reuters, "Fraying economies threaten 30 years of hard work," South China Morning Post, January 1, 2009, p.A5

262. Bloomberg, "Recession reopens Sino-US trade rift," South China Morning Post, December 30, 2008, p.B1
262. Ted Plafker, "A warning to China investment," International Herald Tribune, October 29, 2008, Energy, p.V
262. AFP, "Obama signals harder line over value of yuan," South China Morning Post, January 24, 2009, p.A8
262. Editorial, "Sino-US trade ties have to work, for the sake of us all," Sunday Morning Post, January 25, 2009, p.8
262. Kathy Wong, "Attacker Soros lauds SAR for dollar defense," The Standard, June 16, 2009, p.7
262. Shi Jiangtao and AFP, "Clinton looks to 'positive, co-operative relationship,'" South China Morning Post, February 21, 2009, p.A6
262. Kristine Kwok, "China, US agree on new era of ties," Sunday morning Post, February 22, 2009, p.1
262. Ng Tze-wei, "Former general urges US to permit more military exchanges," South China Morning Post, January 14, 2008, p.A6
263. Zbigniew Brzezinski, "Moving toward a reconciliation of civilizations," China Daily, January 15, 2009, p.9
271. Mike Peters, "American an example for president to follow," China Daily, November 16, 2009, p. 3
271. Reuters, "Obama seeks balanced ties but won't preach at Beijing, aide says," Sunday Morning Post, May 3, 2009, p.6
271. AFP, "Touchdown," The Standard, November 16, 2009, p. 2
272. Wang Yusheng, "Obama carries burden of expectations on first visit," China Daily, November 4, 2009, p. 9
272. Jianwei Wang, "Journey has just begun, destination still very far," China Daily, November 4, 2009, p. 9
272. David Shambaugh, "A carefully scripted visit," International Herald Tribune, November 18, 2009, p. 8
273. Edward Luce and Geoff Dyer, "Harmony edged aside in leaders' frank talks," Financial Times, November 18, 2009, p. 3
273. Geoff Dyer and Edward Luce, "Obama calls for stronger renminbi," Financial Times, November 18, 2009, p.1
273. David Brooks, "The nation of futurity," International Herald Tribune, November 18, 2009, p. 9
273. Edward Wong and Helene Cooper, "Thorny issues, discussed in private," International Herald Tribune, November 18, 2009, p.1
273. Michael Wines and Sharon LaFraniere, "Obama shies away from conflict on China trip," International Herald Tribune, November 18, 2009, p.1
273. Cary Huang, "China and US in talks on upgrading ties," South China Morning Post, November 9, 2009,

274. Susan Shirk, "A mountain to climb," South China Morning Post, October 28, 2009, p. A13

274. Wu Jiao, Li Xiaokun and Lan Lan, "Obama's China trip fuels fresh hope," China Daily, November 11, 2009, p. 1

274. AFP, "Obama's half-brother writes of family pain," The Standard, November 5, 2009, p.6

274. Kristine Kwok and Reuters, "Obama seeks China town hall event," South China Morning Post, November 13, 2009, p.1

274. Reuters, "US uses carrot to improve China ties," South China Morning Post, October 13, 2009, p.B10

274. Reuters, "Strategy for better Sino-US relations pays off for Obama," South China Morning Post, October 13, 2009, p. A6

274. Cary Huang, "Spotlight on Obama's China policy," South China Morning Post, November 13, 2009, p. A16

274. AFP, "Obama's 'middle way' on Tibet angers activists," South China Morning Post, September 16, 2009, p.A6

275. Wang Xiangwei, "Success of visit can't be read in black and white," South China Morning Post, November 23, 2009, p.A4

277. Mary Ma, "Hummer and sickle," The Standard, June 4, 2009, p.4

277. Li Fangfang, "Hummer of a challenge for Chinese firm," China Daily, June 4, 2009, p.1

277. Cai Hong and Zheng Lifei, "Hummer set to go lean and green after sale," China Daily, June 19, 2009, p.1

277. Li Fei, "Hummer bid hurdles still remain, experts say," China Daily, June 16, 2009, p.13

277. Kandy Wong, "Hummer takeover may run into opposition from Beijing," South China Morning Post, June 4, 2009, p.B3

277. Talking Point, "Hummer deal leaves many scratching their heads," China Daily, June 15-21, 2009, p.2

277. Kandy Wong, "Tengzhong on course for GM's Hummer," South China Morning Post, August 25, 2009, B1

278. Li Fangfang, "China may top US in Q1 auto sales," China Daily, April 8, 2009, p.14

278. Kandy Wong and Martin Zhou, "Mainland car sales to stay at full throttle," South China Morning Post, August 17, 2009, p.B1

278. Keith Bradsher, "China's Influence Grows Along With Its Car Sales," The New York Times, April 21, 2009, p.B3

278. Bloomberg, "Tax cuts, subsidies boon for GM China," China Daily, March 20, 2009, p.13
278. The Washington Post, Agencies, "Obama hits money button for cars," The Standard, August 7
278. Liu Yiyu, "Tengzhong has a bumpy road ahead to break in Hummer," China Daily, October 13, 2009, p.14
278. Naomi Rovnick, "Tengzhong to reach deal on Hummer purchase 'within days'," South China Morning Post, October 3, 2009, p.B6
278. Agencies and Kandy Wong, "Hummer buyout nearly in the bag," South China Morning Post, October 10, 2009, p.B1
278. Bill Vlasic, "Automakers in Asia got most from 'clunkers'," International Herald Tribune, August 28, 2009, p. 16
278. Reuters, "Strong demand in China boosts Nissan's outlook," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p. B6
278. Bloomberg, "Hyundai leads Asian rivals in US sales growth," South China Morning Post, November 5, 2009, p.B6
278. Kandy Wong, "Mainland vehicle sales surge 36.5pc on stimulus," South China Morning Post, July 10, 2009, p.B1
278. Kandy Wong, "Mainland car sales surge past million-a-month mark," South China Morning Post, October 14, 2009, p. B3
278. Kandy Wong and Reuters, "China set to overtake US as No 1 car Market," South China Morning Post, November 24, 2009, p.B7
278. Kandy Wong, "Beijing Auto may bid for Ford's Volvo unit," South China Morning Post, June 12, 2009, p.B2
280. Patti Waldmeir, "Chinese carmakers aim to defy downturn," Financial Times, January 2, 2009, p.13
280. Fang Yan and Michael Flaherty, "Auto analysts don't expect China to help," International Herald Tribune, May 28, 2009, p. 16
280. Li Fangfang, "Chery nets 2.9b yuan for growth," China Daily, June 4, 2009, p. 13
280. Li Fangfang, "Chery to expand overseas," China Daily, August 26, 2009, p.13
280. Li Fei, "GM's Chinese JVs report record monthly sales," China Daily, June 4, 2009, p. 13
280. Bloomberg, "GM races ahead in minivan market," South China Morning Post, August 31, 2009, p. B4
280. Bloomberg, "Shanghai tie-up seen to withstand turmoil in Detroit," South China Morning Post, June 2, 2009, p.B10
280. Reuters, "GM failed: Can 'Govt Motors' succeed?" China Daily, June 2, 2009, p.17

280. Melinda Liu, "A Lean, Green Detroit,," Newsweek, May 4, 2009, p. 26
280. Stefan Thiel, "A Green Trade War," Newsweek, May 4, 2009, p. 31
280. Agencies, "Toyota hit dead end," The Standard, November 5, 2009, p. 36
280. John Reed, "Drive to give cars a fresh start," Financial Times, September 23, 2009, p 14
280. Adrian Wan, "Home-grown electric car hits city's roads," South China Morning Post, October 24, 2009, p.C1
280. Associated Press, "China in pole position to be leader in electric cars, says US official," South China Morning Post, October 1, 2009, p.B3
281. Al Guo, "Mainland hopes to lure top talent from overseas," South China Morning Post, January 9, 2009, p.A6
281. Agencies, "Goldman unit in talks to buy Geely bonds and warrants," South China Morning Post, September 22, 2009, p. B4
281. Li Fangfang, "Geely may tap PE fund," China Daily, September 22, 2009, p.13
281. Reuters, "Geely says possible bond issue unrelated to Volvo," South China Morning Post, September 17, 2009, p. B3
281. Don Lee, "Charging right in," Los Angeles Times, December 13, 2008, p.C1
281. Ted Plafker, "China to tap sunlight for power," International Herald Tribune, October 29, 2008, Energy V
281. Kandy Wong, "Buffet hits BYD pay dirt after regulatory wait," South China Morning Post, August 1, 2009, p.B2, 2009, p.17
281. Reuters, "BYD boss puts dream in overdrive," South China Morning Post, November 26, 2009, p.B10
281. Keith Bradsher, "Porsche Introduces a Sedan in China, the Biggest Auto Market," The New York Times, April 20, 2009, p.B3
282. John Reed and Patti Waldmeir, "New models made exclusively for China," Financial Times, January 2, 2009, p. 13
- 282 Eric Ng, "Sun rises surely on solar power sector," South China Morning Post, July 6, 2009, p. B5
282. David Brooks, "Old ruts, new bogs," South China Morning Post, June 1, 2009, p.A11
287. AP-Reuters, "Pirate attacks more than double," China Daily, July 16, 2009, p.11
288. Greg Torode, "Beijing seeks lead role in piracy fight," South China Morning Post, November 10, 2009, p.1
288. Greg Torode, "Beijing proposes bigger naval role to curb piracy," South China Morning Post, November 7,

2009, p.A4

288. AFP, "PLA commander begins tour of US military sites," Sunday Morning Post, October 25, 2009, p.5

288. Agencies, "Daylight US raid in Somalia kills top militant," South China Morning Post, September 16, 2009, p.A8

288. AP, "Captive British couple bearing up thanks to 'hospitable' pirates," South China Morning Post, October 31, 2009, p. A9

288. Stephen Chen and Greg Torode, "China in talks with pirates to free crew," South China Morning Post, October 28, 2009, p. 1

288. Greg Torode, "Pirates turn ancient trade into model modern business," South China Morning Post, October 28, 2009, p. A6

290. Peter G. de Krassel, Custom Maid Knowledge for New World Disorder, Hong Kong, CAL Books, 2007, pp. 458-462

293-295. _____pp. 442-456

296. AFP, "Trio's unity piles pressure on Pyongyang," South China Morning Post, October 12, 2009, p.A6

296. Jonathan Pollack, "Ties that grind," South China Morning Post, October 27, 2009, p.A13

296. AP, "Screws tighten on banks with links to N Korea," South China Morning Post, October 3, 2009, p.A7

296. AFP, "Clinton-Kim meeting may spur nuclear talks, experts say," South China Morning Post, August 5, 2009, p.A10

296. Peng Kuang and Fu Jing, "Clinton, Kim meet during surprise trip," China Daily, August 5, 2009, p. 1

296. Reuters, "US to allow visit by North Korean official," Sunday Morning Post, October 18, 2009, p.8

297. Li Xiaokun and Wang Huazhong, "Bridge over troubled water..." China Daily, August 5, 2009, August 5, 2009, p.7

297. AFP, "Wen to test nuke intent of N Korea," The Standard, October 5, 2009, p.8

298. Richard Grant, "Sea of tears," PostMagazine, May, 10, 2009, p. 12

300. Karin Malmstrom, "Probing the Plastic Vortex," The Correspondent, September-October 2009, p.50

300. AFP, "Sea 'trash' mistaken for plane crash debris," South China Morning Post, June 6, 2009, p.11

300. Xin Dingding, "Chinese passenger insured for $1.4m," China Daily, June 4, 2009, p.2

301. Cheung Chi-fai, "Rising tide of trash found in HK waters," South China Morning Post, June 8, 2009, p.C1

301. Peggy Chan, "Green groups: what timeframe?" China Daily, July 24, 2009, p.H1

302. Teddy Ng, "Govt seeks public views on new air quality objectives," China Daily, July 24, 2009, p.1
302. Editorial, "Clean-air investment will reap big returns," South China Morning Post, July 27, 2009, p.A10
302. Christopher DeWolf, "Volunteers hold back the tide of trash, South China Morning Post-Special Report, November 13, 2009, p. s1
302. Adele Wong, "Green fuel trial for ferries," The Standard, August 26, 2009, p.6
302. Jason Wordie, "Lei Yue Mun, Victoria Harbour's last coastal village, offers a tast of old Hong Kong □ and one not all visitors will want to savour," PostMagazine, January 3, 2010, p.8
303. Amy Nip and Cheung Chi-tai, "Motorists ignore city's first Car-Free Day," South China Morning Post, September 23, 2009, p. C1
303. Olga Wong and Adrian Wan, "Slice of city named national geopark," South China Morning Post, November 4, 2009, p.C1
283. Agencies, "Patently, China on the move," China Daily, December 11, 2008, p.2
283. Stephen Chen, "Mainland overtakes US in engineering papers," South China Morning Post, December 11, 2008, p.A7
283. Reuters, "Da Vinci 'copied from Chinese'," South China Morning Post, July 30, 2008, p.A10
284. Dan Weisman, "Chinese technology benefits US firm," China Daily, March 30- April 5, 2009, p.6
291. Kevin Rafferty, "China can help in Afghan solution," South China Morning Post, October 10, 2009, p. A13
291. Melinda Liu, "Beijing's Afghan Game," Newsweek, November 30, 2009, p.10
291. Greg Torode, "Advantage America," South China Morning Post, December 8, 2009, p.A13
304. Kevin Rafferty, "Going to climate extremes," Sunday Morning Post, June 14, 2009, p.10
304. Li Jing, "China, US build new partnership," China Daily, March 2, 2009, p.3
304. Yu Tianyu, "'Sino-US joint carbon strategy vital'," China Daily, July 14, 2009, p.13
305. Shi Jiangtao, "Energy tops agenda for key talks," South China Morning Post, July 15, 2009, p.A6
305. Reuters, "US officials on China climate trip," July 14, 2009, p.17
305. Wang Linyan and Zhang Haizhou, "Climate teamwork evolving," China Daily, July 17, 2009, p.2
305. Editorial, "Dialogue vital on issues that define our times," South China Morning Post, July 3, 2009, p.A10
305. Tony Blair, "Breaking the climate change deadlock," China Daily, July 8, 2009, p.9

305. Wan Zhihong and Li Xing, "Let's get the balance right, says Locke," China Daily, July 16, 2009, p.1
305. Gwynne Dyer, "US and China cross first climate hurdle," South China Morning Post, May 22, 2009, p.A15
305. Cai Hong, "US must lead the climate battle by example," China Daily, July 17, 2009, p.9
305. Tony Blair, "Low-carbon route," South China Morning Post, July 6, 2009, p.A11
305. Wu Jiao, "Ethnic Chinese tipped as US energy secretary," China Daily, December 12, 2008, p.1
305. Associated Press, "A tireless advocate of green fuel," South China Morning Post, December 12, 2008, p.A12
305. Ivan Broadhead, "Peering through the glass ceiling," Post Magazine, October 26, 2008, p16
306. Mark Hughes, "China takes initial steps on path to creating smart energy cities," China Daily, May 25-31, 2009, p.3
306. Andrew Batson and Jason Dean, "China's bright past belies a hazy future," The Wall Street Journal, August 25, 2008, p.1
306. Fu Jing, "China may soon revise power goal," China Daily, June 2, 2009, p. 13
307. Li Jing, "Climate change law to bring teeth to emissions mandates," China Daily, August 26, 2009, p.4
307. Xie Zhenhua, "Protection factor," South China Morning Post, May 27, 2009, p.A13
307. Subinay Nandy, "Rebuilding for a better and greener future," China Daily, May 29, 2009, p.9
307. Reuters, "US to spend $4 bn to create 'green' jobs," China Daily, May 27, 2009, p. 11
307. AFP, "3 trillion yuan for green energy," The Standard, May 25, 2009, p.12
307. Zhang Qi, "'Wind can power up entire nation'," China Daily, June 18, 2009 p.13
307. Reuters, "Work starts on big wind-power base as China seeks clean power," South China Morning Post, August 10, 2009, p.A4
307. Shi Jiangtao, "Nation builds its biggest wind farm," South China Morning Post, July 6, 2009, p.1
308. Eric Ng, "Wind power loses puff in planning," South China Morning Post, July 13, 2009, p.B4
309. Reuters, "Beijing struggles with CO2 equation," South China Morning Post, June 9, 2009, p.A6
309. Wan Zhihong, "Multinationals look to grow in the wind," China Daily, June 8-14, 2009, p.3
310. Dennis Pamlin, "End of fossil fuel and fueling of innovations," China Daily, August 26, 2009, p.9
310. Ed Crooks, "Back to petroleum," Financial Times, July 8, 2009, p.7

310. Jad Mouawad & Andrew C. Revkin, "If world cuts oil use, Saudis want money," International Herald Tribune, October 15, 2009, p.1
311. AFP, "Leader emerges as climate fight's global stuntman," South China Morning Post, October 19, 2009, p.A9
311. AP, "Cirque du Soleil founder returns from space, with clown nose intact," South China Morning Post, October 12, 2009, p.A11
311. William Underhill, "Norway's New Clout," Newsweek, October 5, 2009, p.10
312. Felicity Barringer, "Hawaii turns to nature in bid to break shackles of fossil fuels," South China Morning Post, September 16, 2009, p.A14
313. Meglena Kuneva, "Hey, green spenders," South China Morning Post, November 28, 2009, p.A11
313. Kate Galbraith, "Clean energy clogs U.S. roads," International Herald Tribune, July 24, 2009, p.15
314. Reuters, "Is water purification next big thing for GE?," China Daily, August 12, 2009, p.16
315. Andrew Purcell, "Natural habitat," PostMagazine, May 31, 2009, p.36
316. Reuters, "Climate change to cause more heat waves, allergies," China Daily, May 29, 2009, p.11316. Eugene Robinson, "Storing up trouble," South China Morning Post, June 8, 2009, p.A13
317. Achim Steiner, "Climate fight must cut a range of emissions," South China Morning Post, September 15, 2009, p. A11
317. Reuters, "Talks on UN climate treaty make headway," South China Morning Post, June 13, 2009, p.A9
317. AFP, "Climate catastrophe gathers pace," The Standard, June 19, 2009, p.19
317. Yu Tianyu, "More rural areas turn to biogas," China Daily, July 22-26, 2009, p.3
317. Kevin Rafferty, "Four fateful months to Copenhagen," South China Morning Post, August 1, 2009, p.A11
317. Fu Jing, Zhang Xin and Li Jing, "Experts say emission cuts won't meet goals for climate change," China Daily, August 13, 2009, p.11
317. Stephen Chen, "The Tibetan tundra's explosive secret," South China Morning Post, October 16, 2009, p.A6
318. Michael Richardson, "Green Power," South China Morning Post, October 3, 2008, p.A15
318. Traci Watson, "Climate plan calls for forest increase," USA Today, August 20, 2009, p.1
318. Laurence Brahm, "Recovery, the Asian way," South China Morning Post, May 23, 2009, p.A11
318. Qiu Yijiao, "Age-old wisdom," China Daily, December 15, 2009, p.20
318. Cheung Chi-fai, "Industrialists eye potential of bamboo as earth-saving alternative to timber," South China

Morning Post, December 28, 2009, p.A3

318. Melinda Liu, "China's Rare Earth Hoard," Newsweek, October 5, 2009, p.19

319. Kristine Kwok, "Human rights set aside as visit by US speaker focuses on harmony," South China Morning Post, May 28, 2009, p.A6

319. AP, "Pelosi calls for partnership in fighting climate change," South China Morning Post, May 27, 2009, p.A6

319. The Washington Post, AFP, "Rights off Pelosi agenda," The Standard, May 25, 2009, p.11

319. Will Clem, "Pelosi steers clear of rights in Shanghai," South China Morning Post, May 26, 2009, p.A7

319. Shai Oster, "Pelosi sees opportunity with China on climate," The Wall Street Journal (Asia) May 27, 2009, p.9

319. Agencies, "Pelosi to focus on climate change, not human rights, during visit," South China Morning Post, May 25, 2009, p.A8

319. AFP, "Pelosi confident of co-operation ahead of climate change talks," South China Morning Post, June 4, 2009, p.A7

320. Fu Jing, "Energy pact with US soon," China Daily, May 27, 2009, p. 13

320. AP, "Climate change resolution to be considered," South China Morning Post, August 19, 2009, p.A6

320. Wang Linyan, "US senator upbeat after 'productive' green talks," China Daily, May 29, 2009, p.2

320. Bloomberg, "Senator welcomes China's climate change efforts," South China Morning Post, May 29, 2009, p.A6

320. AFP, "US climate envoy to lobby Beijing," South China Morning Post, June 5, 2009, p.A8," China Daily, June 15, 2009, p.2

320. Ian Johnson, "U.S. Speaker Pelosi visits China next week," The Wall Street Journal (Asia) May 22-24, 2009, p.9

320. Jing Yang and Shai Oster, "China proposes emission limits on richer nations," The Wall Street Journal (Asia) May 22-24, 2009, p. 9

320. Jamil Anderlini and Fiona Harvey, "China wants rich countries to cut greenhouse gas emissions by 40%," Financial Times, May 22, 2009, p.1

320. Michael Richardson, "World attention turns to Asia's carbon emissions," South China Morning Post, June 3, 2009, p.A11

320. Fu Jing, "China, US move toward clean technology deal," China Daily, June 10, 2009, p.3

320. Stephen Chen, "Beijing to levy green taxes...in due course," South China Morning Post, June 6, 2009,

p.A7

321. Michael Richardson, "Baby steps towards greener economies," South China Morning Post, September 6, 2008, p.A12

321. Ng Tse-wei, "Wen offers China's view on how to achieve world poverty targets," September 27, 2008, p.A8ing Post, May 2, 2008, p.B1

321. Xin Dingding, "City heads still stuck in the clouds," China Daily, May 26, 2009, p.7

321. Michael Richardson, "'Green tariff' is a step back to protectionism," South China Morning Post, July 7, 2009, p.A11

321. Thomas Friedman, "Best footprint forward," South China Morning Post, July 2, 2009, p.A13

321. Shi Jiangtao and Kristine Kwok, "China fights climate tariff ahead of G8," South China Morning Post, July 3, 2009, p.1

321. Reuters, "China urges West to help poor nations curb emissions," The New York Times, October 29, 2008, p.14

321. Ivan Zhai. "Guangzhou plans greener Games," South China Morning Post, June 10, 2009, p.A6ne 1, 2009, p.A16

321. Jonathan Watts, "High-rise hopes for a cleaner cityscape," South China Morning Post, Ju

321. Mark Clifford, "Building foundations for an energy-efficient world," South China Morning Post, November 26, 2009, p.A15

322. Gwynne Dyer, "Postpone climate deal until US, China ready," South China Morning Post, November 18, 2009, p.A15

322. AFP. Grim warnings open 'Hopenhagen'," The Standard, December 8, 2009, p.19

322. Agencies and Shi Jiangtao, "A beginning or a suicide pact? Climate deal divides," South China Morning Post, December 20, 2009, p.1

322. Agencies, "Obama bullish despite doubts on deal," South China Morning Post, December 17, 2009, p.A8

322. Ma Xin, Li Jifeng and Zhang Yaxiong, "China's promise truly ambitious," China Daily, December 17, 2009, p.8

322. Agencies and Minnie Chan, "China fires back at US in climate summit ping-pong," Sunday Morning Post, December 13, 2009, p.7

322. William Daniel Garst, "Good tidings from China on climate change," China Daily, December 17, 2009, p.9

322. Shi Jiangtao and Reuters, "China goes on the attack at climate talks," South China Morning Post, December 10, 2009, p.1

322. Reuters and Shi Jiangtao, "China leads call for rich to fund climate deal," South China Morning Post, November 30, 2009, p.A5
322. Andrew Ward and Fiona Harvey, "US cool on China climate change fund," Financial Times, December 10, 2009, p.6
322. Shi Jiangtao, Ng Tze-wei and AFP, "China urges unity on climate pact," South China Morning Post, December 11, 2009, p.1
322. Sun Xiaohua, "Climate envoy takes China's message to Copenhagen," China Daily, December 9, 2009, p.10
322. Editorial, "A practical way to live with global warming," South China Morning Post, December 4, 2009, p.A18
322. AP, "Poor nations ready to present rich with huge bill in Denmark," South China Morning Post, December 5, 2009, p.A10
322. Shi Jiqangtao, "Beijing drops hint that climate deal may not be reached," South China Morning Post, December 15, 2009, p.A8
322. Shi Jiangtao and Agencies, "Wen in late push for climate accord," South China Morning Post, December 18, 2009, p.1
322. Shi Jiangtao and Agencies, "No big deal: climate talks letdown looms," South China Morning Post, December 19, 2009, p.1
322. Gwynne Dyer, "No compromises," South China Morning Post, December 9, 2009, p.A17
322. AFP, "No climate deal for Copenhagen," South China Morning Post, November 16, 2009, p.A8
322. R.K. Pachauri, "The Disappearing Deal," Newsweek, October 26, 2009, p.25
322. Achim Steiner, "Climate fight must cut a range of emissions," South China Morning Post, September 15, 2009, p.A11
322. Fareed Zakaria, "The Recession's Real Winner," Newsweek, October 26, 2009, p.5
322. AFP, "Reduce carbon intensity, top think tank urges," South China Morning Post, November 13, 2009, p.A4
322. Shi Jiangtao, "Carbon pledge on track with past performance," South China Morning Post, November 28, 2009, p.1
322. Shi Jiangtao, "Mainland unveils carbon target," South China Morning Post, November 27, 2009, p.1
322. Editorial, "The right move on the climate chessboard," South China Morning Post, November 27, 2009, p.A12
322. Josef Hebert, "Obama to take a lead in Copenhagen," South China Morning Post, November 27, 2009,

p.A14

322. Reuters, "US: 17 percent emission pledge to Copenhagen," China Daily, November 26, 2009, p.12

322. Neil Macfarquhar, "Persevere on climate, Obama tells U.N. summit," International Herald Tribune, September 23, 2009, p.1

322. AFP, "Prophet of climate doom a black sheep among many of his peers," Sunday Morning Post, September 20, 2009, p.8

322. AFP, "Devasted Samoa braces for tourist drought," South China Morning Post, October 8, 2009, p.A9

322. Thomas Friedman, "How we can help save the planet virtually overnight," South China Morning Post, November 12, 2009, p.A13

322. Gordon Brown, "We Must Act Now," Newsweek, September 28, 2009, p.23

322. Associated Press, "We can't do it alone, Obama says," South China Morning Post, September 24, 2009, p.A8

322. Sheila McNulty, "Policy doubts come to the fore," Financial Times-Energy In The Americas Supplement, September 23, 2009, p. 1

322. Fu Jing, Li Jing and Huang Xiangyang, "Hu promises deep carbon cuts," China Daily, September 23, 2009, p.1

322. Julian Morris and Karol Boudreaux, "Bad policies, not bad weather, cause famine," South China Morning Post, November 20, 2009, p.A13

322. Xie Hangsheng, "Climate change, China's view," China Daily, November 18, 2009, p.8

322. Noreena Hertz, "Missing Links," South China Morning Post, October 3, 2009, p.A11

322. Editorial, "World will benefit from greener Hu," Financial Times, September 23, 2009, p.12

322. Reuters, "President orders agencies to set emissions targets within 90 days," South China Morning Post, October 7, 2009, p.A12

322. Shi Jiangtao and AFP, "China, India stand together on climate change with pact," South China Morning Post, October 22, 2009, p.1

322. AFP, "Four states declare emergencies as huge snowstorm blankets US," South China Morning Post, December 21, 2009, p.A8

322. Kenneth McCallum, "Hatoyama vows to take steps to revitalize Japan economy," The Wall Street Journal, September 25-27, 2009, p.15

323. Wen Jia, "Changing to meet climate change," China Daily, September 22, 2009, p.5

323. Nancy Birdsall and Arvind Subramanian, "Forget emissions, focus on research," Financial Times, November 18, 2009, p.11

323. Associated Press, “‘Gringos’ must pay to save Amazon, da Silva says,” South China Morning Post, November 28, 2009, p.A9

323. Daniel Lyons, “Could This Power The Earth?,” Newsweek, November 23, 2009, p.32

323. Rajendra K. Pachauri, “Science leaves us no space for inaction now,” Newsweek, October 5, 2009, p.20

324. Gwynne Dyer, “Hampered by glacial pace of climate action,” South China Morning Post, July 14, 2009, p.A11

324. Tim Summers, “Dialled in,” South China Morning Post, June 27, 2009, p.A11

324. R.K. Pachuri, “Climate-change action is a global imperative,” June 25, 2009, p.A11

324. You Nuo, “Bargaining over climate change futile,” China Daily, June 15, 2009, p.4

324. Paul Krugman, “Climate-change denial is treason against the public,” South China Morning Post, June 30, 2009, p.A11

325. AP, “China ‘poised to be climate leader’,” South China Morning Post, September 22, 2009, p.A7

325. Li Jing, “Substantial climate deal sought after,” China Daily, November 26, 2009, p.1

325. Fu Jing, “An economist rises to the green challenge,” China Daily, September 16, 2009, p.9

325. Mike Peters, “Arctic melt is a sign worth heeding on the road to Copenhagen,” China Daily, September 16, 2009, p. 10

325. Sharon Begley, “Deal or No Deal...,” Newsweek, November 30, 2009, p.42

325 Jeffrey Sachs, “Coal conundrum,” South China Morning Post, October 22, 2009, p.A13

325. AFP, “Brown warns of climate catastrophe if deal fails,” South China Morning Post, October 20, 2009, p.A7

325. AP, “Ample space to bury CO2 on mainland scientists say,” South China Morning Post, October 15, 2009, p.A6

325. Nicholas Stern, “Global warming,” South China Morning Post, October 12, 2009, p.A13

325. Fu Jing, “It’s make or break time for climate deal,” China Daily, October 20, 2009, p.11

325. Fanny W.Y. Fung,” South China Morning Post, September 30, 2009, p.A4

325. Editorial, “Time to get serious on climate change,” South China Morning Post, September 22, 2009, p.A10

325. Yu Zheng, “Be aware of Western climate change tactics,” China Daily, November 26, 2009, p.8

325. Mark Clifford, "Green your buildings to fight climate change," China Daily, November 26, 2009, p.9
325. Agencies, "Hu vows to curb carbon emissions 'notably' by 2020," South China Morning Post, September 23, 2009, p.A8
325. Wang Xiangwei, "Time to end Mao Zedong's disastrous war on nature," South China Morning Post, November 16, 2009, p.A5
326. AP-AFP, "Leaked climate e-mails stir anger," China Daily, November 24, 2009, p.11
326. Mukul Munish, "Black Gold fights off green rivals," Net WORTH, September 2009, p.8
326. Stefania Prestigiacomo and John Njoroge Michuki, "Let's build a world environment organization," China Daily, October 30, 2009, p. 9
326. Lin Boqiang, "Institutional deal crucial for this fight," China Daily, December 15, 2009, p.9
326. Op Rana, "Sustainability easier said than achieved," China Daily, December 8, 2009, p.9
326. Mike Moore, "Sinister rise of the new green religion," South China Morning Post, December 15, 2009, p. A13
326. Karim Rasian, "Who will be left behind in the green rush?" South China Morning Post, December 17, 2009, p.A17
326. Associated Press, "China saves humanity (and Hollywood)," South China Morning Post, November 21, 2009, p.A6
326. AFP, "Senator vows US won't take action □ 'it's a Hollywood issue'," South China Morning Post, December 18, 2009, p.A11
327. Christine Loh, "Cities to the rescue," South China Morning Post, December 18, 2009. p. A17
328. Kenneth Chang, "Is the sun missing its spots?" Sunday Morning Post, July 26, 2009, p.7
328. Ed Miliband, "Our only option is a low-carbon transition," South China Morning Post, July 20, 2009, p.A13
330. Op Rana, "Population boom and the green dilemma," China Daily, July 24, 2009, p.8
330. Wu Changhua, "Fateful partners," South China Morning Post, July 25, 2009, p.A11
331. AP, "Obama picks popular Republican governor as ambassador to China," South China Morning Post, May 17, 2009, p.5
331. Martin Zhou, "US-China trade frictions resurface after period of calm," South China Morning Post, June 25, 2009, p.B3
331. AFP, "US Ambassador in-waiting vows to be hard-headed realist," South China Morning Post., July 25, 2009, p.A6

331. Cai Hong and Zhang Haizhou, "US envoy carries promise of better bilateral relations," China Daily, July 25, 2009, p.1
333. Stephen Chen, "Bloom and gloom: how glacier melt greens the desert but dries up Tibet," Sunday Morning Post, August 2, 2009, p.4
333. Sharon Begley, "Climate-Change Calculus," Newsweek, August 3, 2009, p.22
333. Michael Richardson, "Supply and demand," South China Morning Post, August 26, 2009, p.A13
333. Gethin Chamberlain, "High and Dry," PostMagazine, July 26, 2009, p. 14
333. Tom Zeller Jr, "Climate as driver of migration," International Herald Tribune, June 15, 2009, p.22
334. Associated Press, "Yangtze River basin at critical stage," South China Morning Post, November 12, 2009, p.A4
334. Stephen Chen, "Drought agency issues emergency call for the south," South China Morning Post, November 6, 2009, p.A5
334. He Huifeng and Joshua But, "Scientist says drought may turn tap water salty," South China Morning Post, November 7, 2009, p.A2
334. Beatrice Siu, "Warmer, wetter and wilder but dried-up future looms," The Standard, November 11, 2009, p.8
334. Scarlett Chiang, "High and Dry," The Standard, November 9, 2009, p.2
335. You Nuo, Li Jing, Fu Jing and C.J. Holtzman, "Worldwide goals in Sino-US climate talks," China Daily, June 15-21, 2009, p.3
336. Associated Press, "Seize the day, UN climate chief urges," South China Morning Post, December 7, 2009, p.A4
337. Patrick Barkham, "Warm-up act," PostMagazine, September 20, 2009, p.23
337. S.N.M. Abdi, "Sino-Indian glacier research pact stalled," South China Morning Post, August 29, 2009, p.A6
337. AP, "Glacier melt threat to Kashmir area," China Daily, October 15, 2009, p.11
339. Alister Doyle, "Prospect of ice-free ocean spurs territorial disputes around pole," South China Morning Post, June 23, 2009, p.A12
339. AP, "Fast-melting glaziers puzzle scientists," China Daily, September 16, 2009, p.10
340. Brahma Chellaney, "Water bomb," South China Morning Post, August 10, 2009, p.A11
340. The New York Times, "As ice eases grip on Arctic, ships venture a passage," South China Morning Post,

September 12, 2009, p.A9

342. Shi Jiangtao, "Three Gorges Dam 'making drought worse'," South China Morning Post, October 29, 2009, p.1

342. Wang Qian, "Three river delta areas sinking, report claims," September 23, 2009, p.3

342. Joyce Ng and Olga Wong, "Let water plan flow, Hong Kong urged," South China Morning Post, November 11, 2009, p.A3

342. C.Y. Leung, "A cleaner tomorrow," South China Morning Post, December 11, 2009, p. A17

342. Nikkita Lau, "Macau plans to splash cash for bottled water," The Standard, November 10, 2009, p.4

342. Shi Jiangtao, "Cold shower of water price rises is hot topic of debate," South China Morning Post, December 17, 2009, p.1

343. Jeffrey Sachs, "Cracking up," South China Morning Post, April 25, 2009, A. 11

343. Stanley A. Weiss, "Water for Peace," International Herald Tribune, 14 July 2009, p.6

346. AFP, "Changing climate devastating river gypsies," South China Morning Post, September 19, 2009, p.A8

346. Mohammed J. Herzallah, "Egypt's Water Games," Newsweek, September 28, 2009, p.8

346. AFP, "Demand for water is draining Dead Sea," South China Morning Post, November 25, 2009, p.A14

346. Jonas Gahr Store, "The blue planet," South China Morning Post, December 14, 2009, p.A11

346. Li Xing and Si Tingting, "China's climate envoy asks rich countries to do 'soul searching'," China Daily, December 11, 2009, p.10

346. Xiao Xin, "Young ECOwarriors," China Daily, December 15, 2009, p.7

346. Elizabeth Weise, "All fish caught in U.S. tested streams have mercury," USA Today, August 21-23, 2009, p. 1

349. Alan Simon, "Hurdling language barriers," China Daily, September 5, 2008, p. 19

349. Associated Press, "Better-off mainland students head for US," South China Morning Post, November 19, 2008, p. A4

349. The New York Times, "Asian carp invasion sparks alarm in Illinois," South China Morning Post, September 16, 2008, PA9

349. Stephen Chen, "Homeward bound," South China Morning Post, September 8, 2008, p. A16

349. Gordon Fairclough, "In China, athletes don't rule the school," The Wall Street Journal, August 20, 2008, p.16

349. Simon Parry, "Pass masters," PostMagazine, May 10, 2009, p.24
350. 'nuff said, South China Morning Post, September 7, 2008, p. 3
350. Chloe Lai, "Cities dangle incentives to lure elite Chinese back from overseas," South China Morning Post, December 26, 2008, p.A5
350. Linda Yu, "Still a land of opportunity," China Daily, December 1, 2008, p.8
350. Bonnie Cao, "Hit by crisis, young foreigners find China a land of opportunity," South China Morning Post, September 25, 2009, p.A18
351. Mai Ya, "US Chinese 'all brains, no pay'," China Daily, December 3, 2008, p.4
351. Associated Press, "Inquiry into claim Princeton sets caps on Asians widened," South China Morning Post, June 14, 2008, p.4
352. Norman Pritchard, "Learning English to serve their country better," China Daily, January 23, 2009, p.9
353. Todd Balazovic, "Pint-sized pioneers," China Daily, July 20, 2009, p.8
355. Raymond Li, "More than 220,000 foreigners studying at mainland campuses," South China Morning Post, March 26, 2009, p.A5
356. Zhu Linyong, "A mark of Character," China Daily, July 17, 2009, p.18
356. Associated Press, "Ancestors of humans evolve in Asia, study says," South China Morning Post, July 3, 2009, p. A7
357. Geraldine Fabrikant, "Harvard reports plunge in main fund," The Global Edition of The New York Times, December 5, 2008, p.16
South China Morning Post, July 3, 2009, p. A7
357. Matthew Kaminski, "The Age of Diminishing Endowments," The Wall Street Journal (Asia), June 4, 2009, p.16
357. Reuters, "Harvard and Yale see value of endowments shrink 30pc," South China Morning Post, September 12, 2009, p.B5
357. Jonathan Power, "In the firing line," South China Morning Post, July 29, 2008, p.A13